

SOFT COMPUTING

The background features a dark, futuristic digital environment. A central, glowing sphere is composed of a network of white nodes connected by thin lines, emitting a bright blue light. From this sphere, two large, flowing ribbons of light extend outwards: one in shades of purple and pink on the left, and another in shades of orange and yellow on the right. The scene is filled with various digital elements, including glowing lines, panels, and screens, creating a sense of depth and complexity.
