Perspectives on EU-Russia Relations Debra Johnson, Paul F. Robinson, Paul Robinson, 2005 This book explains how the internal dynamics of transition have influenced the relationship between Russia and the EU Taking an holistic approach the authors present a balanced analysis exploring EU Russian and US perspectives on the Russian EU relationship and examine a range of political economic business and security issues including the Northern dimension of Russian EU relations the Chechen situation Russian domestic economic policy trade the business environment energy and EU technical assistance They also address such questions as Will bilateral relations be achieved with a Western or Russian model Who is the main driver of Russian EU relations Is Russia converging with the EU in terms of business culture legal environment and systems Does the Russian EU link provide a new model for EU external relations

Gulag Anne Applebaum, 2007-12-18 PULITZER PRIZE WINNER This magisterial and acclaimed history offers the first fully documented portrait of the Gulag from its origins in the Russian Revolution through its expansion under Stalin to its collapse in the era of glasnost A tragic testimony to how evil ideologically inspired dictatorships can be The New York Times The Gulag a vast array of Soviet concentration camps that held millions of political and criminal prisoners was a system of repression and punishment that terrorized the entire society embodying the worst tendencies of Soviet communism Applebaum intimately re creates what life was like in the camps and links them to the larger history of the Soviet Union Immediately recognized as a landmark and long overdue work of scholarship Gulag is an essential book for anyone who wishes to understand the history of the twentieth century

NATO Towards the Challenges of a Contemporary World 2013 Robert Czulda, Robert Łoś, 2013-12-26 A wide range of contemporary challenges and threats and their volatility uncertainty complexity and ambiguity make it necessary to develop a new flexible and integrated holistic approach The modern world requires NATO to build institutional partnerships with a range of actors This applies not only to the other major international organizations such as the United Nations and the European Union but also to non governmental organizations NGOs as well as the private sector for example the energy and IT sectors All these players must become partners in the attempt to cope with multi dimensional security related problems Given the vast differences in their goals mandates methods and philosophy of action building trusting and effective relationships between them will be an arduous process Nevertheless as the biggest political and military organization in the world NATO cannot avoid contemporary challenges if it does not want to go out of business
