Cases and Materials on Torts John L. Diamond, 2001. This law school casebook includes both new and classic cases selected for their teachability and stimulation for students. Newspaper articles and editorials have been reprinted to emphasize public controversies surrounding particular tort law decisions. Notes are straightforward and designed to explore policy concerns rather than struggle with clarifying black letter law. Highlights of new cases include a second hand smoke case and another case of university students suing for battery after being intentionally exposed to radiation on a field trip, intentional interference with contractual and economic relations and sexual harassment as grounds for a suit for intentional infliction of mental distress.

Taking Law Seriously James Goudkamp, Mark Lunney, Leighton McDonald, 2022-01-27. This book celebrates the scholarship of Peter Cane. The significance and scale of his contributions to the discipline of law over the last half century cannot be overstated. In an era of increasing specialisation, Cane stands out on account of the unusually broad scope of his interests which extend to both private and public law in equal measure. This substantive breadth is combined with remarkable doctrinal, historical, comparative and theoretical depth. This book is written by admirers of Cane's work and the essays probe a wide range of issues especially in administrative law and tort law. Consistently with the international prominence that Cane's research has enjoyed, the contributors are drawn from across the common law world. The volume will be of value to anyone who is interested in Cane's towering contributions to legal scholarship and administrative law and tort law more generally.
