Undiscovered country Tom Stoppard,1980      Five European Plays Tom Stoppard,2018-10-16 Alongside his many major plays Tom Stoppard has written several highly acclaimed translations and adaptations of works by other writers which are collected together here for the first time together with a new introduction by Stoppard Five European Plays includes adaptations of plays by four major European dramatists Johann Nestroy Arthur Schnitzler Ferenc Molnár and Václav Havel Stoppard transports us to settings as diverse as nineteenth century Vienna and the Czech Republic under communism From the farcical humor of Rough Crossing which follows two playwrights on a cruise ship who are struggling to finish a musical comedy before the ship docks to the tender story of love and secrets in Dalliance to the chillingly comic depiction of a writer working in Communist Eastern Europe in Largo Desolato the plays reveal Stoppard as a master of technique whose language shines in these translations and adaptations just as brightly as in his other works      Anglo-German Theatrical Exchange,2015-02-04 Through the great diversity of topics and methodologies the essays in this volume make a seminal contribution to an under researched field at the intersection of literary and cultural criticism comparative literature and theatre as well as translation studies The essays cover a wide range of texts from the eighteenth to the twenty first century From a broad variety of perspectives the exchange between drama and theatre of the Anglophone and the Germanophone worlds and their mutual influence are explored While there is a focus on the successful or unsuccessful bridging of the cultural gaps due consideration is given to the nexus between intercultural translation and mise en scène as well as the intricacies of intermedial reshaping Always placing the analyses within the political and socio historical contexts the essays make an innovative contribution to the aesthetics of Anglo German theatrical exchange as well as to European cultural history
