Vested Interests:

An essay on the learning of contingent remainders and executory devises ... The third edition, revised, corrected, and greatly enlarged by the author Charles FEARNE (the Younger.),1844 Finance & Development, September 2000 International Monetary Fund. External Relations Dept.,2000-01-01 For the latest thinking about the international financial system monetary policy economic development poverty reduction and other critical issues subscribe to Finance Development F D This lively quarterly magazine brings you in depth analyses of these and other subjects by the IMF s own staff as well as by prominent international experts Articles are written for lay readers who want to enrich their understanding of the workings of the global economy and the policies and activities of the IMF Annual Report - Office of Alien Property United States. Department of Justice. Office of Alien Property,1956 The Vested Interests Thorstein Veblen,2001-09-01 Veblen s classic position on social status is intertwined with his interest in economic class and the political prospects of that class The Vested Interests is squarely in that tradition It aims to show how and why a discrepancy has arisen between the accepted principles of law and custom that underlie the business enterprise and the efficient management of industry He also speculates on the civil and political difficulties inspired by this discrepancy between business civilization and the social order Many of the essays in this collection originally appeared in Dial from October 1918 to January 1919 The Vested Interests includes The Instability of Knowledge and Belief The Stability of Law and Custom The State of the Industrial Arts Free Income The Vested Interests The Divine Rights of Nations Live and Let Live and The Vested Interests and the Common Man In his new introduction Irving Louis Horowitz discusses Veblen as an economist turned sociologist He explores the dichotomies in Veblen s approach describing it as radical in input and conservative in outcome Veblen was analytical in design but ideological in rhetoric He was materialist in his economic analysis but idealistic in his emphasis on law and custom as regulatory mechanisms of the management of society Horowitz also describes the difficulties Veblen experienced in placing his steadfastly nineteenth century ideals in the context of 1920s America This is the final volume in Transaction s series of the essential works of Thorstein Veblen It will be of central interest to sociologists as well as economists particularly those interested in the history of ideas Thorstein Veblen 1857 1929 was perhaps the most famous American economist and social critic of his time He taught at the Universities of Chicago and Missouri Stanford University and the New School for Social Research His many books include The Theory of Business Enterprise The Higher Learning in America Absentee Ownership and The Theory of the Leisure Class all available from Transaction Irving Louis Horowitz is university professor and Hannah Arendt Distinguished Professor Emeritus at Rutgers the State University of New Jersey where he taught for thirty years He also serves as editorial director and chairman of the board of Transaction Publishers Among his writings is Behemoth Main Currents in the History and Theory of Political Sociology Health Policy Reform in China Jiwei Qian,[]ke Blomqvist,2014 Most of the existing literature on health system reform in China deals with only one part of the reform process for example financing reform in rural areas or the new system of purchasing pharmaceuticals or consists of empirical case studies from particular cities or regions This book gives a broad overview of the process of health system reform in China It draws extensively both on the Western literature in health economics and on the experience of health care reform in a number of other countries including the US UK Holland and Japan and compares China s approach to health care reform with other countries It also places the process of health system reform in the context of re orienting China s economic policy to place greater emphasis on equity and income distribution and analyzes the interaction of the central and local governments in designing and implementing the reforms This book will be of interest to policymakers academics students of health economics health policy and health administration and people who are interested in Chinese social policy

The Vested Interests and the Common Man Thorstein Veblen, 2010-10-27 This work presents some of Veblen s core ideas in a short accessible and typically witty form His well known view that the business financial interests work at cross purposes to manufacturing is concisely developed and presented here He also takes some care to diagnose the why of this condition offering ideas on how a range of 18th Century legal and cultural norms came to be undermined by new technical and social developments without being superseded or updated by a new culture In other words we see manufacturing economies operating inside of obsolete cultural constructs causing much friction and distress One of Veblen s more interesting and less discussed ideas is also developed here the private use made of intangible capital and its conversion into income streams through capitalization in bond issues and other financial instruments Veblen s insights on the relationship between owners and managers finance and production community and property are pungently stated and lie outside of any convenient pigeonhole Well worth reading 100 years after publication and applicable to elements of today s economic situation Illinois Law Review ,1917 Atlantic Reporter ,1921 A Compendium of the Law of Property in Land and of Conveyancing Relating to Such Property William Douglas Edwards,1904 The Revised Reports Frederick Pollock,Robert Campbell,Oliver Augustus Saunders,Arthur Beresford Cane,Joseph Gerald Pease,William Bowstead,1910 The Agricultural Situation in the United States American Academy of Political and Social Science,1925 Reports of Cases Argued and Determined in the Surrogate's Courts of the State of New York Charles Hood Mills,1923 Parliamentary Debates Australia.
