Snakebite Survivors Club:

The Snakebite Survivors' Club Jeremy Seal, 1999 A funny gruesomely fascinating account of the world of snakes and the people they repel mesmerize and sometimes kill Jacket Treachery at Sharpnose Point Jeremy Seal, 2003-01-07 While walking through a cliff top graveyard in the village of Morwenstow on the coast of Cornwall the author encounters a wooden Scottish maiden trimmed with emblems and a shield At first Seal presumes the maiden is merely an elaborate headstone But upon closer inspection he realizes that the maiden now a guardian for the graves she overlooks was once the figurehead of a merchant ship He learns that she adorned the Caledonia a ship wrecked on the English coast in 1842 and that the crew had been benevolently buried there by the villagers Further investigation leads Seal to suspect those villagers and chiefly the village s parson Robert Hawker for the Caledonia s sudden demise Though no one has ever been brought to court for wrecking luring ships ashore to loot the cargo it s a commonly held belief that this did take place But is that what happened in Morwenstow a village cruelly perched above a jagged inhospitable shore Having meticulously researched maritime logs and burial registers broadsides of the day diary entries and other first hand documents Seal weaves history travelogue and imaginative narrative into this marvelous piece of detective work bringing us a mystery of the best kind the sort that really did happen
