Snuff Fiction:

Snuff Fiction Robert Rankin, 2009-11-02 We read him for his exuberant salmagundi of old jokes myths urban and otherwise catchphrases liberatingly crazy ideas running gags recurring characters and locations unreliable autobiographical anecdotes and not forgetting the now legendary load of old toot He becomes funnier the more you read him Mat Coward Independent on The Dance of the Voodoo Handbag Society's plug is about to be pulled big time At the stroke of midnight on 31 December 1999 computer systems all over the world will crash and plunge us into chaos But so what if it's the downfall of civilization These things happen We'll just have to take it on the chin Or at least up the nose Because rejoice and give thanks snuff is making a comeback And who do we thank for this Who is the man who brings joy to the nostrils of the nation The tender blender with the blinder grinder The master blaster with the louder powder The geezer with the sneezer that's a real crowd pleaser Mr Doveston that's who and this is his story So forget about impending doom and enter the glamorous world of snuff snorting Oh and don't forget to bring a hanky Things could get a little messy later Robert Rankin's novel gleefully chronicles the collapse of civilisation as the world slides into chaos with a smile on its face and a finger up its nose Prophetic vision of an imminent dystopia Or just the rabid ranting of a snuff crazed technophobe
