Steens Surrounding Scenes:

Scenes and Traces of the English Civil War Stephen Bann, 2020-05-11 The English Civil War has become a frequent point of reference in contemporary British political debate. A bitter and bloody series of conflicts it shook the very foundations of seventeenth century Britain. This book is the first attempt to portray the visual legacy of this period as passed down, revisited and periodically reworked over two and a half centuries of subsequent English history. Highly regarded art historian Stephen Bann deftly interprets the mass of visual evidence accessible today from ornate tombs and statues to surviving sites of vandalism and iconoclasm, public signage and historical paintings of human subjects, events and places. Through these important scenes and sometimes barely perceptible traces, Bann shows how the British view of the War has been influenced and transformed by visual imagery. Monographs on artists, 1904 The Human Touch Chloé Arros, 2024-09-27 The Human Touch is a book focused on the creative processes at work in British contemporary improvisational theatre and how these processes draw on the humanity of the participants, their cognitive abilities, their lives and their relationships to each other. Vulnerability is a main feature of both the book and of improvisational theatre, both part of the hurdles that improvisers face and a creative tool. Through a study of improvisation and vulnerability, the book teaches us both what makes improvisational theatre so human and opens the door to a reflection about how to use humanity and human emotions in performance. Most importantly, it delves into the cognitive and physiological processes at work in improvisation, a topic which is missing from most manuals and studies offered to students. This book is addressed to theatre students and provides both an important overview of the form's history and a challenge to what is usually taught about improvisation. The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1876 The World's Fair City and Her Enterprising Sons C.
