How to Fall in Love with the Future Rob Hopkins,2025-06-17 There are an infinite number of possible futures that lie ahead of us like threads stretching out into the distance Rob Hopkins cofounder of the international Transition Network movement invites us to travel to future worlds we would actually want to live in In 2020 when the COVID 19 pandemic disrupted every aspect of daily life climate activist and Transition Network cofounder Rob Hopkins responded the way a lot of people did by starting a podcast But it wasn t any ordinary podcast In each episode Hopkins and his guests would time travel together to the year 2030 walking down imagined future streets talking with imagined future neighbors visiting imagined future local businesses While Hopkins s guests came from all walks of life economists politicians bakers comedians novelists and more they all shared a willingness to suspend their worries about the future long enough to mentally inhabit and then describe a world they were thrilled to be a part of What Hopkins discovered was no less profound this simple exercise of visiting a positive future forced him to rethink the work he d been doing as a climate activist for decades How to Fall in Love with the Future is the result of that radical disruption and Hopkins s deep dive into the people and movements throughout history who have used visions of the future to inspire positive change on a large and dramatic scale

From the life and writings of musician Sun Ra and the history of Black utopian movements to the latest neuroscience on what goes on in our minds and hearts when we time travel Hopkins brings essential new thinking to anyone overwhelmed with dread and anxiety for the future He asks us to consider what would the world look like if we all got to work imagining and then building a world we were deeply in love with Rob Hopkins puts imagination back at the heart of future dreaming offering us an irresistible invitation to dream bigger and then make those dreams a reality Kate Raworth author of Doughnut Economics

Decline to Fall Douglas Wass,2008-03-13 This book provides the first comprehensive and authoritative account of the events leading up to the UK seeking a massive loan from the IMF in 1976 which almost precipitated a financial crisis on a par with those of the 1930 s and early post war period Sir Douglas Wass who was permanent Secretary to the Treasury at the time provides a unique first hand account of the events that took place as the crisis unfolded and the decision making process Bringing unrivalled experience and knowledge of Whitehall to the narrative he draws on recently released documents such as official Treasury minutes memoranda official statements and reports IMF documents and blends them with his own assessment of this key period of policy making to provide a fascinating blow by blow account of how the Treasury reacted when faced with a series of inter locking crises Decline to Fall will be a must read for anyone interested in the formulation of policy and the workings of government
