The Marble Faun, Or, the Romance of Monte Beni Nathaniel Hawthorne, 1800 The Marble Faun and A Green Bough William Faulkner, 2011-12-14 Published early in the author s legendary career and collected here in a single illuminating volume these are William Faulkner s only two works of poetry The Marble Faun 1924 and A Green Bough 1933 These are primarily the poems of youth and a simple heart They are the poems of a mind that reacts directly to sunlight and trees and skies and blue hills reacts without evasion or self consciousness They are drenched in sunlight and color as is the land in which they were written the land which gave birth and sustenance to their author He has roots in this soil as surely and inevitably as has a tree The author of these poems is a man steeped in the soil of his native land a Southerner by every instinct and more than that a Mississippian George Moor said that all universal art became great by first being provincial and the sunlight and mocking birds and blue hills of North Mississippi are a part of this young man s very being from the preface to The Marble Faun by Phil Stone The Half-vanished Structure Magnus Ullén, 2004 This book takes issue with the tendency in twentieth century Hawthorne criticism to blur the distinction between symbolism and allegory Rejecting the long standing notion that Hawthorne is a symbolist in allegorical disguise Ullén argues that allegory is the key to understanding how religion sexuality aesthetics and politics are interwoven in Hawthorne s writings The study presents a model for allegorical interpretation of general applicability which is brought to bear on each of Hawthorne s mature romances and on the oft neglected Wonder Books written for children An unparalleled analysis of the formal intricacies of Hawthorne s writings this book is an eloquent plea for the necessity of grounding ideological analysis in aesthetical considerations

The Poetics and Politics of the American Gothic Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet, 2010 Challenging the widely held assumption that gothic literature is mainly about fear Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet argues that the American Gothic and gothic literature in general is also about judgment Analyzing canonical works by Poe Hawthorne Melville Gilman and James Monnet persuasively argues that these authors concerns about slavery gender and sexuality tacitly inform works that deal explicitly with less controversial subjects

Hawthorne and the Real Millicent Bell, 2005 Hawthorne was with his own complicity long described as a writer of unreal romances as he preferred to call his novels or allegories of the heart as he termed some of his short stories The essays in this collection contribute to the turn in recent Hawthorne criticism which shows how deeply implicated in realism his writing was

BOOK JACKET The Marble Faun Nathaniel Hawthorne, 1926 The Marble Faun was sketched in Italy and prepared for publication mainly in Redcar England in 1859 60 The Castle of Monte Beni the ancestral home of Donatello the human faun stands for Villa Montanto where the author made his home for a time in the summer of 1858 and the original of Hilda's tower is described in the French and Italian Note Books May 15 1858 This romance which is generally held to be somewhat inferior to the novels of American life though in an entirely different setting does not differ greatly from them or from some of the best short stories in the nature of its topic and the handling of its characters Like them it has for its theme a subject of conscience the influence of the consciousness of sin and its penalty in elevating the life of a soul Donatello's resemblance to the sculptured faun is typical of his spirit unawakened and looking neither before nor after until his crime puts an end forever to his joyous holiday existence and remorse for it develops his intellect and his soul Kenyon is a good type of a cultivated American quietly enthusiastic tolerant and not cynical loving art and not despising America Hilda is remarkable for the great moral strength united with her delicacy and sensibility Her suffering on account of the crime of which she has been merely a witness is strongly contrasted with the attitude of Miriam whose conscience needs to be brought to a full awakening even after participation in it her free and strong nature having been bewildered in a maze of wrong the one escape from which has offered itself in sudden temptation

Sensationalism and the Jew in Antebellum American Literature David Anthony, 2023-06-07 This book examines the charged but mostly overlooked presence of the sensational Jew in antebellum literature This stereotyped character appears primarily in the pulpy sensation fiction of popular writers like George Lippard Ned Buntline Emerson Bennett and others But this figure also plays an important role in the sometimes sensational work of canonical writers such as Nathaniel Hawthorne Edgar Allan Poe and Walt Whitman Whatever the medium this character always overdetermined does consistent cultural work This book contends that as the figure who embodies money and capitalism in the antebellum imagination the sensational Jew is the character who most fully represents a felt anxiety about the increasingly unstable nature of a range of social categories in the antebellum US and the sense of loss and self hatred so often lurking in the background of modern Gentile identity Each chapter examines a different form of sensationalism urban gothic sentimental city mysteries anti Tom plantation narratives etc and a different set of anxieties threats to class status collapsing regional identity the uncertain status of Whiteness and other racial categories etc Throughout the sensational Jew acts both as a figure of proteophobia fear of disorder and ambivalence and as the figure who embodies in uncanny form a more fulfilling and socially coherent form of identity that predates the modern liberal selfhood of the post Enlightenment world The sensational Jew is therefore a revealing figure in antebellum culture as well as an important antecedent to contemporary antisemitism in the US

The Book of Esther and the Typology of Female Transfiguration in American Literature Ariel Clark Silver, 2017-11-30 The enduring search for female salvation in American literature is first expressed through typology an interpretive framework that pairs type with antitype historical scriptural promise with future spiritual fulfillment When Cotton Mather invokes the typos of Esther in Ornaments of the Daughters of Zion a Puritan conduct book he offers a female type of divine wisdom authority and force In the biblical Book of Esther Esther acts as a female type of wisdom and redemption but her story also engages the larger history of Hebrew salvation In nineteenth century America Margaret Fuller seeks to extend the spiritual claims once made by Mather and establish the role of the divine female in the salvation of American culture and society Fuller supplants the type of male sacrifice with a type of female transfiguration in works such as Woman in the Nineteenth Century Nathaniel Hawthorne then transforms these iconoclastic ideals into literary life by engaging the multi faceted figure of Esther as a typos of female redemption and salvation in Legends of the Province House The Scarlet Letter The Blithedale Romance and The Marble Faun Through his female characters Esther Dudley Hester Prynne Zenobia and Miriam he seeks to fulfill the divine destiny of the American woman Hawthorne discovers however that female redemption is followed by revenge as Esther turns from saving her people to ensuring an end to their oppression When Henry Adams later revives Esther Dudley in his novel Esther he rejects male redemption for the American woman In Democracy Esther Mont Saint Michel and The Education of Henry Adams Adams envisions an independent eternal woman who can rival the political scientific artistic and theological power of men The movement from male to female salvation is achieved when the terms of female redemption are transformed and the American woman is established as her own source of divine wisdom power retribution and force The typology of female transfiguration in America is fulfilled by Fuller Hawthorne and Adams through the promise extended by the type of Esther
