Thought Its Origin And Control:

Christian thought, its history and application Ernst Troeltsch, Gangolf Hübinger, 2006 Ernst Troeltsch received an invitation to deliver lectures on his life's work in London Edinburgh and Oxford in March 1923 as one of the first German scholars to visit Britain after the First World War however he died shortly before he could make the trip The texts of the five lectures published posthumously carry Troeltsch's idea of a European cultural synthesis following from his studies on Historicism and its problems KGA 16 As part of the complete critical edition this volume presents the original German lectures together with their English translations for the first time

The Natural History of Thought in Its Practical Aspect George Wall, 1887 Character Reading Through Analysis of the Features Gerald Elton Fosbroke, 1914

Nature of Human Thought (second edition) Anil K Rajvanshi, 2010-08-30 This second edition of the book presents a unique scientific perspective on the nature of human thought its production transmission and interaction with matter A conceptual framework is attempted to show how deep human thought space time matter and Universal Consciousness are related The nature of thought and mind control according to ancient Patanjali Yoga Darshan is explained in the light of modern brain research and cosmology The book provides a beautiful blend of Indian philosophical thought and modern science Dr Rajvanshi brings into these essays a deep scientific insight on the nature of human mind and shows how the cultivation of deep thought can help us on the path of spirituality so that we can live a happy and sustainable life The essays also explore the relationship between spirituality science and technology and show that they go hand in hand and are necessary for a sustainable and emotionally satisfying world

A History of American Thought 1860-2000 Daniel Wickberg, 2023-09-07 This book is a comprehensive overview of the history of modern American thought and examines a wide range of modern thought and thinkers from 1860 when Charles Darwin's Origin of Species was published in the United States to the end of the twentieth century The focus of this volume is on the destabilizing effects of modern challenges to notions of fixed order and absolute truths and the contradictory consequences for philosophical political social and aesthetic thought The intellectual response to the unprecedented changes of this era produced visions of both liberation from the hierarchies of the past and new forms of control and constraint One of the central contradictions in modern thought was between biological and cultural ideas of social psychological and moral order This is the first work to provide an interpretive vision of the entire period under consideration Topics covered include evolutionary thought philosophical Pragmatism ideas of race and gender pluralism and cultural relativism Cold War Liberalism science and religion feminist thought evolutionary psychology and the late twentieth century Culture Wars Thinkers from William James and Charlotte Perkins Gilman through Judith Butler and Cornel West are analyzed as historical figures This volume is an ideal resource for a general audience as well as undergraduate and graduate students in the field of American intellectual history
