In Pursuit of Excellence

It makes little difference what profession, trade, or business you finally enter, your college education will serve you well. It will help you as much to handle tools and equipment as to render services to your fellow men. A good education is not just a learning experience; it is also the development of the powers of the mind, the formation of character, and instruction in all matters moral.

In the eyes of the world, a college degree has become a prerequisite for high achievement and the passport to success. College attendance is seen as the unique key to personal development, yea, even to self-respect and inner confidence. Unfortunately, this popular view confuses individual success with human dignity and worth, which are qualities of the mind and spirit of every individual. Every human being, regardless of education and success, may have poise and integrity in his or her comportment worthy of respect.

Contrary to popular belief, a college education is not the only passport to success; in a free economy you may rise to fame and fortune through entrepreneurship, which is the creation and operation of business ventures. A school dropout may become the founder of an enterprise, the president of his company, and a captain of industry by

Johnson,1973 North American Review's War Weekly George Brinton McClellan Harvey,1919 World of the Third and Hegemonic Capital Anjan Chakrabarti,Anup Dhar,2023-05-04 This book brings together Marxian philosophy and Lacanian psychoanalysis to argue that the hegemonic form of global capital is founded on the foreclosure of class and world of the third The authors counterpose the world of the third to the mainstream notion of the third world seen as a lacking other in desperate need of aid and development Thus for them the hegemonic form of global capital is engendered through the foregrounding of the poor victim third world and the foreclosure of the non capitalist world of the third Building on what they characterize as an ab original reading of Marxian historical materialism and the Lacanian real the authors seek to conceptualize a counter hegemonic revolutionary subject as a basis for postcapitalist alternatives to the hegemonic form of global capital Harvey's Weekly George Brinton McClellan Harvey,1919 The Weekly George Brinton McClellan Harvey,1919 The Ultimate Imperative Ronald H.
