Three Jewels:

Why Take Refuge in the Three Jewels? The Chan Master Sheng Yen, 2007-06-01 The Words of My Perfect Teacher Patrul Rinpoche, 1998 Patrul Rinpoche makes the technicalities of his subject accessible through a wealth of stories quotations and references to everyday life His style of mixing broad colloquialisms stringent irony and poetry has all the life and atmosphere of an oral teaching Great care has been taken by the translators to render the precise meaning of the text in English while still reflecting the vigor and insight of the original Tibetan The Sublime Continuum and Its Explanatory Commentary , 2023-06-06 Explore an in depth explanation of buddha nature and self emptiness The original Sublime Continuum Explanatory Commentary was written by Noble Asanga to explain the verses received from the bodhisattva Maitreya in the late fourth century CE in northern India Here it is introduced and presented in an original translation from Sanskrit and Tibetan with the translation of an extensive Tibetan Supercommentary by Gyalsap Darma Rinchen 1364 1432 whose work closely followed the view of his teacher Tsong Khapa 1357 1419 Contemporary scholars have widely misunderstood the Buddhist Centrist Madhyamaka teaching of emptiness or selflessness as either a form of nihilism or a radical skepticism Yet Buddhist philosophers from Nagarjuna on have shown that the negation of intrinsic reality when accurately understood affirms the supreme value of relative realities Gyalsap Darma Rinchen in his Supercommentary elucidates a highly positive theory of the buddha nature showing how the wisdom of emptiness empowers the compassionate life of the enlightened as it is touched by its oneness with the truth body of all buddhas With his clear study of Gyalsap s insight and his original English translation Bo Jiang completes his historic project of studying and presenting these works from Sanskrit and Tibetan in both Chinese and now English translations in linked publications Milarepa and the Art of Discipleship II Sangharakshita, 2018-04-05 This is the continuing story of Milarepa and his disciple Rechungpa first encountered in volume 18 of The Complete Works As portrayed in The Hundred Thousand Songs of Milarepa Rechungpa is a promising disciple but he has a lot to learn being sometimes proud distracted anxious desirous of comfort and praise over attached to book learning stubborn sulky and liable to go to extremes In other words he is very human and surely recognizable to anyone who has embarked on the spiritual path He all too often takes his teacher s advice the wrong way or simply ignores it and it takes all of Milarepa s skill compassion and patience to keep their relationship intact and help his unruly disciple to stay on the path to Enlightenment In the story that begins this volume matters come to a head when Milarepa burns the books that Rechungpa went all the way to India to acquire but by the end of the volume Rechungpa is able to set out on his own mission to teach the Dharma Much happens in between Sangharakshita s commentary based on seminars given in the late 1970s and early 1980s draws from the stories of Milarepa and his wayward disciple much valuable advice for any would be spiritual practitioner Joyful Path of Good Fortune Geshe Kelsang Gyatso, 1990-01-01 Joyful Path of Good Fortune presents the complete Buddhist path to enlightenment in a form that is easy to understand and put into practice Enriched with stories and illuminating analogies it presents the essential meaning of all Buddha s teachings in the order in which they are to be practised giving step by step guidance on all the meditations leading to full enlightenment in Asian religions Areas addressed include the complex fluid and contested nature of the religious image the reception of images within the intellectual culture of Hinduism and Buddhism and the importance of historical and cultural context in the study of religious images This compelling collection demonstrating the range of debate over practices of image worship will expand our appreciation of the objects that serve for many as supports of divine presence Of primary interest to scholars of Asian religions it will also appeal to art historians anthropologists semioticians and students of religion who concern themselves with images icons and material culture
