Three Men In A Boat:

Three Men in a Boat K. Jerome, 2007-03 Jerome Klapka Jerome 1859 1927 was an English author best known for the humorous travelogue Three Men in a Boat. Three Men in a Boat begins "THERE were four of us George and William Samuel Harris and myself and Montmorency We were sitting in my room smoking and talking about how bad we were bad from a medical point of view I mean of course We were all feeling seedy and we were getting quite nervous about it Harris said he felt such extraordinary fits of giddiness come over him at times that he hardly knew what he was doing and then George said that HE had fits of giddiness too and hardly knew what HE was doing With me it was my liver that was out of order I knew it was my liver that was out of order because I had just been reading a patent liver pill circular in which were detailed the various symptoms by which a man could tell when his liver was out of order I had them all It is a most extraordinary thing but I never read a patent medicine advertisement without being impelled to the conclusion that I am suffering from the particular disease therein dealt with in its most virulent form The diagnosis seems in every case to correspond exactly with all the sensations that I have ever felt"
