Three Men Of Badajos:

The Laird's Luck and Other Fireside Tales Sir Arthur Thomas Quiller-Couch, 2020-09-28 I had the honour of commanding my Regiment the Moray Highlanders on the 16th of June 1815 when the late Ensign David Marie Joseph Mackenzie met his end in the bloody struggle of Quatre Bras his first engagement He fell beside the colours and I gladly bear witness that he had not only borne himself with extreme gallantry but maintained under circumstances of severest trial a coolness which might well have rewarded me for my help in procuring the lad s commission And yet at the moment I could scarcely regret his death for he went into action under a suspicion so dishonouring that had it been proved no amount of gallantry could have restored him to the respect of his fellows So at least I believed with three of his brother officers who shared the secret These were Major William Ross my half brother Captain Malcolm Murray and Mr Ronald Braintree Urquhart then our senior ensign Of these Mr Urquhart fell two days later at Waterloo while steadying his men to face that heroic shock in which Pack s skeleton regiments were enveloped yet not overwhelmed by four brigades of the French infantry From the others I received at the time a promise that the accusation against young Mackenzie should be wiped off the slate by his death and the affair kept secret between us Since then however there has come to me an explanation which though hard indeed to credit may if true exculpate the lad I laid it before the others and they agreed that if in spite of precautions the affair should ever come to light the explanation ought also in justice to be forthcoming and hence I am writing this memorandum It was in the late September of 1814 that I first made acquaintance with David Mackenzie A wound received in the battle of Salamanca a shattered ankle had sent me home invalided and on my partial recovery I was appointed to command the 2nd Battalion of my Regiment then being formed at Inverness To this duty I was equal but my ankle still gave trouble the splinters from time to time working through the flesh and in the late summer of 1814 I obtained leave of absence with my step brother and spent some pleasant weeks in cruising and fishing about the Moray Firth Finding that my leg bettered by this idleness we hired a smaller boat and embarked on a longer excursion which took us almost to the south west end of Loch Ness
