National Conference as a Strategy for Conflict Transformation and Peacemaking Jacques L. Koko,2008 Since the end of the Cold War Africa has witnessed a political rebirth and second liberation as decades of autocracy and dictatorship became gradually replaced by a new wave of democratization and plural political competition This political rebirth has revived the Afro optimism that accompanied the independence decade of the 1960s This optimism however co exists with protracted and deadly conflicts in many parts of the continent from wars in Rwanda Democratic Republic of Congo and Somalia to stalemate in democratic reform in Niger Guinea and Cameroon and democratic retraction in Uganda Additionally Africa faces many problems including wars famine refugees internal displacement and a host of diseases such as HIV AIDS Similarly despite the adoption of constitutions that guarantee the basic human rights and freedoms by many African states human rights violations remain rampant throughout the continent s political landscape

Democracy and Culture An African Perspective is an analysis of the democracy project in Africa Basically the contributors seek answers to a number of fundamental questions How is democracy to be defined in the African context Is the Western style democracy which is being adopted in many parts of Africa culturally and environmentally neutral Can it really be replicated in Africa And what is the role of African culture in the current democracy project
