Narrative Engagement as Exile and Return
ROBERT D. NEWMAN

Transgressions Of Reading

Francis William Bourdillon

Transgressions Of Reading:

Transgressions of Reading Robert D. Newman,1993 It is often claimed that we know ourselves and the world through narratives In this book Robert D Newman portrays narrative engagement as a process grounded in psychoanalytic theory to explain how readers or listeners or viewers manage to engage with specific narratives and derive from them a personal experience Newman describes this psychodrama of narrative engagement as that of exile and return an experience in which narrative becomes a type of homeland beckoning and elusive endlessly defining and disrupting the borders of a reader s identity Within this paradigm he considers a fascinating variety of narrative texts from the Jim Jones episode in Guyana to Freud s repression of personal history in his story of Moses from a surrealist collage novel by Max Ernst to the horror films of Alfred Hitchcock from the works of James Joyce Ariel Dorfman Milan Kundera and D M Thomas to the tales of abjection in pornography Transgressions of Reading is itself an engaging work as interesting for its provocative readings of particular works as for its theoretical insights It will appeal to readers from all fields in which narrative plays a crucial role in the study of film and art modern and contemporary literature popular culture and feminist psychoanalytic and reader response theory

Queer Transgressions in Twentieth-Century Polish Fiction Jack J. B. Hutchens,2020-07-22 Throughout the twentieth century in Poland various ideologies attempted to keep queer voices silent whether those ideologies were fascist communist Catholic or neo liberal Despite these pressures there existed a vibrant transgressive trend within Polish literature that subverted such silencing This book provides in depth textual analyses of several of those texts covering nearly every decade of the last century and includes authors such as Witold Gombrowicz Marian Pankowski and Olga Tokarczuk winner of the 2018 Nobel Prize in Literature Jack J B Hutchens demonstrates the subversive power of each work showing that through their transgressions they help to undermine nationalist and homophobic ideologies that are still at play in Poland today Hutchens argues that the transgressive reading of Polish literature can challenge the many binaries on which conservative heteronormative ideology depends in order to maintain its cultural hegemony

Reading Network

Fiction David Ciccoricco, 2007-11-25 Ciccoricco analyzes innovative developments in network fiction from first generation writers Michael Joyce Twilight a symphony 1997 and Stuart Moulthrop Victory Garden 1991 through Judd Morrissey's The Jew's Daughter 2000 an acclaimed example of digital literature in its latter instantiations on the Web Each investigation demonstrates not only what the digital environment might mean for narrative theory but also the ability of network fictions to sustain a mode of reading that might arguably be called literary

BOOK JACKET Short Sermons: for Family Reading, Etc. 2 Francis William Bourdillon, 1879 Self-Examination and the Old Testament Marc Cogen, 2024-01-10 Based on the Old Testament wisdom and its many human experiences Self Examination and the Old Testament recreates the mindset of the main personalities dealing with self examination It is widely accepted that self examination is fundamental for sustaining a healthy individual life and for peace in society For the believer the words and thoughts of the OT are divinely inspired providing a spiritual foundation and the many instances of self examination in the Old Testament show us how to deal with delving into our own hearts and looking closely at what we find there

The Bible for Home Reading Claude Goldsmid Montefiore, 1900 Sacred Transgressions Seth Benardete, 1999 This detailed commentary on the action and argument of Sophocles Antigone is meant to be a reflection on and response to Hegel's interpretation in the Phenomenology of Spirit VI A b It thus moves within the principles Hegel discovers in the play but reinserts them into the play as they show themselves across the eccentricities of its plot Wherever plot and principles do not match there is a glimmer of the argument Haemon speaks up for the city and Tiresias for the divine law but neither for Antigone The guard who reports the burial and presents Antigone to Creon is as important as Antigone or Creon for understanding Antigone The Chorus too in their inconsistent thoughtfulness have to be taken into account and in particular how their understanding of the canniness of man reveals Antigone in their very failure to count her as a sign of man's uncanniness She who is below the horizon of their awareness is at the heart of their speech Megareus the older son of Creon who sacrificed his life for the city looms as large as Eurydice whose suicide has nothing in common with Antigone's She is all mother Antigone is anti generation
