Troubled Land:

The Troubled Land and the King Christopher Oghogho Egbo, 2015-10-09 This is a story that was discovered of a community that was never having the habit of warring However it got to a time that the wealth of the land attracted other neighbouring communities who felt this land must be taken away from these people who originally settled here by the means of continued wars since the people were found to be very feeble to wars This however didnt go down well with one of the young men who from so many stories he heard of his grandfather while the grandfather was still alive as regarding who were the real owners of this land that is now becoming a troubled land decided to take some serious risk and measures This he did by travelling out of his home town in search for power acquisition from various goddesses in other regions Again as times and days grew older then the young man after creating fame for himself decided to be rebellious against those who ennobled him and thereby causing the people more troubles His attitude became so unbearable few years after his coronation as the King He was regarded as the peoples death trap The Kings uncompromising attitude brought fears into the land and its people This led to those who couldnt stand these troubles to run for their dear lives And as a result of these troubles in the land and the Kings aggressive drives many settlements which later in the years grew into villages and towns were founded This thereby led to this community expanding into many parts of the district and beyond Though some of these settlements were founded in virgin land that were never occupied by people which the people still lived in them till date As times kept on drifting the people became restive of the King and this led the warriors and the elders of the community to plan the death of the King However while the people were making every frantic effort to have the King dead the King was facing more troubles with his wives and children

twentieth century      Troubled Land Paul Graham,2022 In 1990 a year before the Zapatistas armed revolt Wendy Ewald was invited to conduct photography classes for Mayan Ladino and Tzotzil children living in Chiapas the southernmost province of Mexico The sponsoring organization was the Mayan writers cooperative Sna Jtz ibajom The House of the Writers While cameras and camcorders were hardly novelties in Chiapas they were generally used by tourists whose picture taking reinforced their own cultural biases Ewald did not take pictures instead she guided her students in taking their own pictures of their daily lives dreams desires and fantasies These briefs resonated with the importances held by dreams in Mayan culture which considers them as real as waking life The resulting project The Devil is leaving his Cave is a unique insight into the everyday realities of life in Mayan communities just before the devastation of the Zapatista uprising This book brings together Ewald s original project with new work made in collaboration with fifteen young Mexican Americans living in Chicago coordinated with the help of Centro Romero an immigrant service organisation These images respond to many of the same subjects as those by Ewald s 1990s students with an emphasis now on capturing inner lives and dreams as a way of reckoning with the unvoiced experiences of immigration The themes of restriction and self reflection that emerged from this new work were intensified by being made in part under COVID lockdown Together the Chiapas and Chicago projects trace the differences between growing up in different Mexican geographies with diverse histories while holding on to the universal joys and sorrows of childhood      A New Species of Trouble Kai Erikson,1995 In the twentieth century disasters caused by human beings have become more and more common Unlike earthquakes and other natural catastrophes this new species of trouble afflicts person and groups in particularly disruptive ways      Whispers of Life - Through the Eyes of a Soldier. Major (Dr) Vijay Kumar Bhasin,2026-02-11 This volume is a collection of poems on diverse themes a vibrant m lange of images reflecting the poet s journey through past and present With remarkable intellectual dexterity the author unravels multiple interpretations precariously balanced paradoxes and subtle tonal shifts embodying a deliberate estrangement from traditional coherences and conventions Having endured profound grief and fear wounded by fierce desire and shaped by the conflict of dream shattering years the poet writes with authenticity for all who have walked through life s trials as he has His verses weave together hope and despair speaking for the silent and the unseen Ultimately his words fall gently like silent raindrops into the vast universe of emotional truth This handy sized book is meant to be cherished not merely as a collection of poems but as an intimate expression of the author s sensitive portrayal of the world as he perceives it A poem is what a poem does      Proceedings of the 5th Legal International Conference and Studies (LICS 2022) Faruk Kerem Giray,Henning Glaser,Sri Endah Wahyuningsih,2023-06-26 This is an open access book In the era of globalization and economic liberalization the free trade applies and begins to be implemented such as the Asian Economic Community AEC the inflow and outflow of food beverage drug and cosmetic products circulating in the world community is increasing rapidly Indeed the halal products circulated and traded cannot be confirmed so that they do not give a sense of peace security comfort and are suitable for consumption by Muslim consumers The circulation of various products on the market both in the form of finished products and raw materials especially those sourced from animals either directly or derived from animals has made it difficult for the Muslim community to trace the halalness of a product People are also weak in understanding the ingredients and the production process of a food product Thus efforts to provide consumer protection especially Muslim consumers are very important and urgent Therefore it is the duty of the state to protect its citizens according to the mandate of the constitution above With this condition the need for halal certification is getting stronger considering that Muslim consumers are increasingly critical and need certainty of the halalness of the food products they consume both in terms of materials and production processes to packaging and distribution For this reason halal certification of food beverage drug and cosmetic products is very important Halal certification is a necessity to provide certainty about the halalness of a product so that the rights and interests of Muslim consumers to carry out their religious sharia not to consume non halal products will be guaranteed This regulation on the protection of Muslim consumer rights has also been mandated in Law Number 18 of 2012 concerning Food Furthermore food safety quality nutrition and halal are the rights of Muslim consumers which are protected by law and become a government program in food development to meet the most important basic human needs and their fulfillment is part of the human rights of every Indonesian people
