Poetry Off the Page Laura Severin,2017-03-02 This study examines the performed poetry of Charlotte Mew Anna Wickham Edith Sitwell Stevie Smith Liz Lochhead and Jackie Kay as an alternative radical tradition of British poetry developed to convey women s experience Through a historical treatment in which the poets are discussed in pairs the chapters trace how these six women used a performative poetry to deal with difficulties regarding women s representation from simply presenting difference in the case of Mew and Wickham to deconstructing difference in the case of Sitwell and Smith to avoiding the recapture of cultural imagery in the case of Lochhead and Kay Laura Severin claims that twentieth century British women poets have been neglected by both feminist and more traditional literary critics because they cannot be read within available literary frameworks Feminist criticism in particular has overlooked the value of other poetic ancestries by locating the only radical tradition of modern poetry in fractured form At least one alternative radical tradition can be found in a narrative and performed poetry that maximizes its transgressive potential with multiple framing devices Though a female poet always experiences difficulty in controlling both cultural imagery and her own public presentation these framing devices work together both to deconstruct the essentialized category of woman and to recover the multiplicity of women s experience
