Subcommittee on Science, Research, and Technology,1990 International Financial Reporting Standards and New Directions in Earnings Management Oliveira, Jonas da Silva,Azevedo, Graça Maria do Carmo,Ferreira, Augusta da Conceição Santos,2019-03-22 The fiscal market is an unpredictable torrent of information that modern organizations strive to understand Business professionals dedicate themselves to understanding uncertain results around economic performance to improve management reporting standards and predict trends in financial statements International Financial Reporting Standards and New Directions in Earnings Management is an essential reference source that discusses identifying the behavioral patterns of managers and the accounting policies they use in different opportunistic circumstances Featuring research on topics such as earnings quality risk reports and investor protection this book is ideal for regulatory authorities accountants impression managers auditors academics students and researchers seeking coverage on the theoretical empirical and experimental studies that relate to the different themes within earnings management Expectations and challenges of international students studying at institutions of higher education in the United States Nikki Joanne Preston,2016 International Standards and Trade United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science, Space, and Technology. Subcommittee on Technology and Competitiveness,1992 New Applications in IT Standards: Developments and Progress Jakobs, Kai,2010-01-31 Provides essential research on developing teaching and implementing standards in global organizations and institutions The Regulation of Product Standards in World Trade Law Ming Du,2020-11-12 This monograph has two central purposes The first is to provide a critical analysis of how governmental private and hybrid product standards are regulated in the GATT WTO legal framework The second purpose is to explore both positively and normatively the impact that WTO disciplines may have on the composition function and decision making process of various standard setting bodies through the lens of a series of selected case studies including the EU eco labelling scheme ISO standards and private standards such as the FSC The book analyses what role if any the WTO may play in making product standards applied in international trade embody not only technological superiority but also substantive and procedural fairness such as deliberation representativeness openness transparency due process and accountability Whilst it has been long recognised that voluntary product standards drawn up by both governmental and non governmental bodies can in practice create trade barriers as serious as mandatory governmental regulations a rigorous and systematic inquiry into the boundary relevance and impact of WTO disciplines on product standards is still lacking Providing a lucid interpretation of the relevant WTO rules and cases on product standards this book fills this significant gap in WTO law literature Definitive and comprehensive this is an essential reference work for scholars and practitioners alike International standards for the treatment of drug use disorders ,2020-02-28 The International Standards for the Treatment of Drug Use Disorders was prepared by World Health Organization WHO and United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime UNODC to support Member States in developing and expanding effective evidence based and ethical treatment for drug use disorders especially in less resourced settings They provide key principles for organizing treatment services for drug use disorders and describe the main components of treatment systems including treatment settings modalities and interventions Additionally they include considerations for populations with special treatment and care needs

Healthcare Quality and HIT - International Standards, China Practices Jilan Liu,2019-07-10 How Chinese hospitals have been growing and adopting international standards such as JCI and HIMSS EMRAM to fuel their advancements is not well known to the western world In this book Jilan Liu as former Principal Consultant of JCI and current Chief Executive Officer for HIMSS Greater China presents a selection of case examples written by Chinese hospital executives and staff showcasing first hand experiences and insights into how the leading healthcare organizations grow and continue their success in China The case examples include Chinese hospitals who have participated in JCI accreditation and or HIMSS EMRAM These hospitals represent the new wave of organizations adopting international standards while accommodating the unique conditions of China

Food Safety Standards in International Trade Onsando Osiemo,2016-09-15 Food safety has become a major concern for consumers in the developed world and Europe in particular This has been highlighted by the recent spate of food scares ranging from the BSE mad cow crisis to Chinese melamine contamination of baby formula To ensure food safety throughout Europe stringent food safety standards have been put in place from farm to fork At the same time poor African countries in the COMESA rely on their food exports to the European market to achieve their development goals yet have difficulty meeting the EU food safety standards This book examines the impact of EU food safety standards on food imports from COMESA countries It also critically examines both EU and COMESA food safety standards in light of the WTO SPS Agreement and the jurisprudence of the WTO panels and Appellate Body The book makes ground breaking proposals on how the standards divide between the EU and the COMESA can be bridged and discusses the impact of EU food safety standards on food imports from poor African countries

International Perspectives on Evaluation Standards Craig Russon,Gabrielle Russon,2005-02-11 Prior to 1995 there were fewer than half a dozen regional and national evaluation organizations around the world Today there are more than fifty attesting to a growing interest in the practice of program evaluation internationally Many of these new organizations have undertaken efforts to develop their own standards or to modify existing sets most typically the Program Evaluation Standards of the Joint Committee on Standards for Educational Evaluation for use in their own cultural context Following two introductory chapters one a conceptual overview and the second a history of the development and revisions of the Program Evaluation Standards this issue documents standards development efforts in three different settings Western Europe Africa and Australasia In addition because nongovernmental organizations and governments have entered the standard setting business other chapters describe standards development activities by the European Commission and CARE

International The content points to the challenge of formalizing standards for program evaluation given cross cultural differences in values and to the continuing challenges related to implementing voluntary standards This is the 104th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Evaluation     Bulletin [of] the Institute of International Education ,1923
