Explorations in the Sociology of Language and Religion Tope Omoniyi, Joshua A. Fishman, 2006-08-17 The Sociology of Language and Religion SLR is still in its infancy as a sub discipline in the macrosociolinguistic tradition. It is therefore no coincidence that the editorial collaboration to produce its first definitive text Explorations in the Sociology of Language and Religion has involved Joshua A. Fishman, often cited in the literature as one of the founders of the Sociology of Language. Tope Omoniyi brings to the collaboration an insightful and incisive critical eye for engaging with diversity in the treatment of language and religion. Together as editors they have successfully midwived the birth of SLR. The studies and debates contained in this volume revisit those themes that both of the contributory disciplines of Sociology of Language and Religion have common interest in. The contributing authors explore new methodologies and paradigms of analysis that they deem appropriate for this interesting and complex interface in an attempt to demonstrate how the shared interests of these disciplines impact social practices in various communities around the world. The ultimate objective of the discussions is to fashion tools for creating a body of new knowledge that supports the emergence of a better society. Towards this end the authors have harnessed resources from varied geographical, cultural, linguistic and religious constituencies without compromising analytical depth. In the process they have opened up new areas of sociolinguistic inquiry. The volume is thus presented as a highly useful reference resource both for undergraduate and postgraduate scholarship.

Indigenous Language Revitalization Jon Allan Reyhner, Louise Lockard, 2009 This 2009 book includes papers on the challenges faced by linguists working in Indigenous communities. Maori and Hawaiian revitalization efforts, the use of technology in language revitalization and Indigenous language assessment. Of particular interest are Darrell Kipp's introductory essay on the challenges faced starting and maintaining a small immersion school and Margaret Noori's description of the satisfaction garnered from raising her children as speakers of her Anishinaabemowin language. Dr. Christine Sims writes in her American Indian Quarterly review that it covers a broad variety of topics and information that will be of interest to practitioners, researchers and advocates of Indigenous languages. Includes three chapters on the Maori language: Changing Pronunciation of the Maori Language: Implications for Revitalization, Language is Life: The Worldview of Second Language Speakers of Maori, Reo o te Kainga: Language of the Home. A Ngai Te Rangi Language Regeneration Project. Transcending Monolingualism: Linguistic Revitalization in Education. A. Camilleri, L. Huss, K. King, 2014-06-17 This volume describes a wide range of educational situations where linguistic revitalization is currently taking place. Handbook of Heritage, Community, and Native American Languages in the United States Terrence G. Wiley, Joy Kreeft Peyton, Donna Christian, Sarah

Catherine K. Moore, Na Liu, 2014-01-03 Co published by the Center for Applied Linguistics Timely and comprehensive this state of the art overview of major issues related to heritage community and Native American languages in the United States based on the work of noted authorities draws from a variety of perspectives the speakers use of the languages in the home community and wider society patterns of acquisition retention loss and revitalization of the languages and specific education efforts devoted to developing stronger connections with and proficiency in them Contributions on language use programs and instruction and policy focus on issues that are applicable to many heritage language contexts Offering a foundational perspective for serious students of heritage community and Native American languages as they are learned in the classroom transmitted across generations in families and used in communities the volume provides background on the history and current status of many languages in the linguistic mosaic of U S society and stresses the importance of drawing on these languages as societal community and individual resources while also noting their strategic importance within the context of globalization
