Ukrainian Intelligentsia in Post-Soviet Lviv Eleonora Narvselius, 2012-04-05 Intelligentsia assumes the right to speak in the name of the entire nation and to extrapolate its own tastes values and choices to it Therefore intelligentsia s voices have been in many ways decisive in the discussions about Ukrainian national identity which gained momentum in the post Soviet Ukrainian society The historical and cultural cityscape of Lviv is an especially apt site for investigation of the nexus intelligentsia nation not only in the Ukrainian but in the East Central European context This borderline city while not being a remarkable industrial administrative or political centre has acquired the reputation of a site of unique cultural production and a principal center of the Ukrainian nationalist movement throughout the twentieth century Here the popular conceptions of intelligentsia have been elaborated at the intersection of various cultural historical and political traditions This study addresses Ukrainian speaking intelligentsia and intellectuals in Lviv both as a discursive phenomenon and as the social category of cultural producers who in the new circumstances both articulate the nation and are articulated by it

Etymological Geography ... With an Introduction by John Stuart Blackie Christina BLACKIE, 1875 Etymological Geography Christina Blackie, 1875 Души живыя A. Rennikov, 1925 Changing China: Migration, Communities and Governance in Cities Li Si-Ming, Shenjing He, Kam Wing Chan, 2018-02-02 China s unprecedented urbanization is underpinned by not only massive rural urban migration but also a household registration system embedded in a territorial hierarchy that produces lingering urban rural duality The mid 1990s onwards witnessed increasing reliance on land revenues by municipal governments causing repeated redrawing of city boundaries to incorporate surrounding countryside The identification of real estate as a growth anchor further fueled urban expansion Sprawling commodity housing estates proliferate on urban rural fringes juxtaposed with historical villages undergoing intense densification The traditional urban core and work unit compounds also undergo wholesale redevelopment Alongside large influx of migrants major reshuffling of population has taken place inside metropolitan areas Chinese cities today are more differentiated than ever with new communities superimposing and superseding older ones The rise of the urban middle class in particular has facilitated the formation of homeowners associations and poses major challenges to hitherto state dominated local governance The present volume tries to more deeply unravel and delineate the intertwining forms and processes outlined above from a variety of angles circulatory mobility and precariousness urbanization diversity and segregation and community and local governance Contributors include scholars of Chinese cities from mainland China Hong Kong Canada Australia and the United States This volume was previously published as a special issue of Eurasian Geography and Economics Du Fu Jue Chen, 2023-07-10 Irreducible to conventional labels usually applied to him the Tang poet Du Fu 712-770 both defined and was defined by the literary intellectual and socio-political cultures of the Song dynasty 960-1279 Jue Chen not only argues in his work that Du Fu was constructed according to particular literary and intellectual agendas of Song literati but also that conventional labels applied to Du Fu do not accurately represent this construction campaign He also discusses how Du Fu s image as the greatest poet sheds unique light on issues that can deepen our understanding of the subtleties in the poetic culture of Song China

Contested Modernities in Chinese Literature C. Laughlin,2005-06-03 This book is a significant gathering of ideas on the subject of modern Chinese literature and culture of the past several years The essays represent a wide spectrum of new approaches and new areas of subject matter that are changing the landscape of knowledge of modern and contemporary Chinese culture women s literature theatre performance film graphic arts popular literature as well as literature of the Chinese diaspora These phenomena and the approaches to them manifest interconnected trajectories for new scholarship in the field the rewriting of literary history the emergence of visual culture and the quotidian apocalypse the displacement of revolutionary romanticism and realism as central paradigms for cultural expression by the perspective of private everyday experience

Becoming Chinese Wen-hsin Yeh,2023-11-15 This volume evaluates the dual roles of war and modernity in the transformation of twentieth century Chinese identity The contributors all leading researchers argue that war no less than revolution deserves attention as a major force in the making of twentieth century Chinese history Further they show that modernity in material culture and changes in intellectual consciousness should serve as twin foci of a new wave of scholarly analysis Examining in particular the rise of modern Chinese cities and the making of the Chinese nation state the contributors to this interdisciplinary volume of cultural history provide new ways of thinking about China s modern transformation up to the 1950s Taken together the essays demonstrate that the combined effect of a modernizing state and an industrializing economy weakened the Chinese bourgeoisie and undercut the individual s quest for autonomy Drawing upon new archival sources these theoretically informed thoroughly revisionist essays focus on topics such as Western inspired modernity urban cosmopolitanism consumer culture gender relationships interchanges between city and countryside and the growing impact of the state on the lives of individuals The volume makes an important contribution toward a postsocialist understanding of twentieth century China This volume evaluates the dual roles of war and modernity in the transformation of twentieth century Chinese identity The contributors all leading researchers argue that war no less than revolution deserves attention as a major force in the making of

Unattainable Bride Russia Ellen Rutten,2010-03-08 Throughout the twentieth century and continuing today personifications of Russia as a bride occur in a wide range of Russian texts and visual representations from literature and political and philosophical treatises to cartoons and tattoos Invariably this metaphor functions in the context of a political gender allegory which represents the relationships between Russia the intelligentsia and the Russian state as a competition of two male suitors for the former s love In Unattainable Bride Russia Ellen Rutten focuses on the metaphorical role the intelligentsia plays as Russia s rejected or ineffectual suitor Rutten finds that this metaphor which she covers from its prehistory in folklore to present day pop culture references to Vladimir Putin is still powerful but has generated scarce scholarly consideration Unattainable Bride Russia locates the cultural thread and places the political metaphor in a broad contemporary and social context thus paying it the attention to which it is entitled as one of Russia's modern cultural myths Novel Epics Frederick T.
