Stephen Spender Papers Stephen Spender, Contents Carton 2 folder Notebook for Poems 1940 1941 D 57 Stephen Spender Stephen Spender, 1986 Stephen Spender's Collected Poems is the first gathering together of this renowned poet's major work in more than thirty years. The book contains recent uncollected poems including remembrances of Auden, Stravinsky and Louis MacNeice as well as previously uncollected early poems. Sir Stephen has also made considerable changes in the texts of his earlier work, eliminating some poems and significantly reworking many others. Stephen Spender is a signal figure in the history of poetry in English in our century. A poet of engagement, both political and emotional, he has witnessed and vividly described the traumas and trials of his age. This definitive collection of his poems is his essential testimony. Stephen Spender, the son of a journalist, was born in London in 1909. He was educated at University College Oxford, where he met among others W. H. Auden, Christopher Isherwood, and Louis MacNeice, with whom he was to develop a poetics of engagement, writing powerfully of the confusion and alarm of 1930s Europe. He visited Spain during the Civil War in 1937, where he assisted the Republican cause with propaganda activity. His post-war memoir World within World was recognised as one of the most illuminating literary autobiographies to have come out of the 1930s and 1940s, distilling a distinctively personal humanistic socialism. His poetry has been praised for its exploratory candour, its personal approach to the stresses of modernity, and its exact portraiture of social and political upheaval. Grey Gowrie's new selection offers a timely and incisive reevaluation of Spender's substantial poetic corpus. Stephen Spender John Sutherland, 2005-01-06. One of the leading poets and cultural icons of the 20th century, Stephen Spender was a prominent writer, literary critic, and social commentator, and close friend of some of the best-known creative talents of his day. Now, in this penetrating biography, John Sutherland paints a vivid portrait of Spender and of the glittering literary world of which he was a part, drawing on exclusive access to Spender's private papers. This briskly paced, compelling narrative illuminates the vast range of Spender's literary, political, and artistic interests. We follow Spender from childhood to his days at Oxford, where he first became friends with W. H. Auden, Christopher Isherwood, and Isaiah Berlin, to his meteoric rise as poet in the 1930s, while still in his twenties, to his later years as cultural statesman at home in both Britain and America. We witness many of the century's defining moments through Spender's eyes: the Spanish Civil War, World War II, the Cold War, the 1960s sexual revolution, and the rise of America as a cultural force. And along the way, we are introduced to many of Spender's accomplished friends including Dylan Thomas, Sylvia Plath, Cecil Day Lewis, Joseph Brodsky, Lucian Freud, George Orwell, Virginia Woolf, and T.S. Eliot. Perhaps most important, Sutherland has been granted exclusive access to Spender's private papers by his wife Natasha Spender. Thus he is able to provide a far more intimate look at the poet's personal life than has appeared in previous biographies. Featuring 36 unpublished photographs, Stephen Spender: A Literary Life throws light not only on this supremely gifted writer but also on the literary and social history of the twentieth century. Stephen Spender: a Study in Poetic Growth Surya Nath Pandey, 1982-01-01 Recent Poems by Stephen Spender Stephen Spender, 1978 New Collected Poems of Stephen Spender Stephen Spender, 2015-04-09 Stephen Spender along with his friends W.H. Auden, Louis MacNeice, and C. Day Lewis rose to prominence in the 1930s, writing powerfully of the fear and paranoia of a continent heading towards war. By the time of his death in 1995, he had established a distinguished reputation as a poet, critic, editor, and translator. This New Collected Poems, edited by Michael Brett, gathers seven decades of verse from Poems (1933) to Dolphins (1994) and the late uncollected work. Reordering the thematic principle of the 1985 Collected Poems, this edition returns to a book-by-book chronology and allows the reader to experience for the first time the full development and range of his career. World Within World Stephen Spender, 1951 Selected Poems/ Stephen Spender Stephen Spender, 1964 The New York Intellectuals Hugh Wilford, 1995 Reconstructs the history of a group of thinkers and activists including Philip Rahv, Mary McCarthy, Dwight Macdonald, and Lionel Trilling, collectively known as the New York Intellectuals during the period of their greatest influence, the 1940s and 1950s. While defending the group against charges that they sold out, the author analyzes the contradictions between their avant-garde principles and the institutional locations they came to occupy. Annotation copyright by Book News, Inc., Portland, OR. Edward Upward and Left-Wing Literary Culture in Britain Dr Benjamin Kohlmann, 2013-10-28 Offering the first book-length consideration of Edward Upward (1903-2009), one of the major British left-wing writers, this collection positions his life and works in the changing artistic, social, and political contexts of the twentieth and early twenty-first centuries. Upward's fiction and non-fiction from the 1920s onwards illustrate the thematic and formal richness of left-wing writing during the twentieth-century age of extremes. At the same time, Upward's work shows the inherent tensions of a life committed at once to writing and to politics. The full range of Upward's work and a wealth of unpublished materials are examined, including his early fantastic stories of the 1920s, his Marxist fiction of the 1930s, the extraordinary semi-autobiographical trilogy The Spiral Ascent, and his formally and thematically innovative later stories. The essays collected here reevaluate Upward's central place in twentieth-century British literary culture and assess his legacy for the twenty-first century.
