The Mistressclass:

The Mistressclass Michèle Roberts, 2003-09-10 Set in contemporary London and provincial France this is a story of past impulses and present day repercussions The dead father haunts his son in real life Vinny haunts her sister and the whole novel is haunted by one of the form's great early exponents Charlotte Bronte and her passionate search for creative fulfilment

BOOK JACKET The Pleasure of the Feminist Text Susanne Gruss, 2009 I would regard myself as a feminist writer because I'm a feminist in everything else and one can't compartmentalise these things in one's life Angela Carter When I became a feminist in 1968 I felt that I'd come home the first home I ever had that was feminine And it was very wild and theatrical and erotic the early feminism Michèle Roberts Angela Carter and Michèle Roberts share a keen interest in gender and sexual identity but many of their topics seem to mark them as opposites Roberts's fascination with the impact of religion motherhood and autobiography on female identity covers areas that Carter shuns in her writings In reading these two authors parallel and in contrast to each other this monograph follows a triple objective it provides a comprehensive critical introduction to the works of Roberts explores aspects of Carter's work that have not yet been analyzed sufficiently religion motherhood and masculinity and uses both authors to explore motifs and strategies of feminist writing The analyses of both authors' works are supplemented by close readings of a wide range of theoretical perspectives especially French feminism and psychoanalysis and concise theoretical outlines of the topics covered radical feminism religion motherhood and fatherhood masculinity fairy tales romances and chick lit and history and autobiography

Nations, Traditions and Cross-cultural Identities Annamaria Lamarra, Eleonora Federici, 2010 European Connections Studies in Comparative Literature Intermediality and Aesthetics is a peer reviewed series that focuses on the literary and artistic relations that shape European cultures It also wishes to explore relations with non European cultures with a view to fostering more equitable models of cultural exchange and transfer

The Mistressclass Michele Roberts, 2003 Adam is a writer struggling to come to terms with the death of his painter father Robert and his difficult marriage to Catherine Before he married Catherine he had been the lover of her sister Vinny The classic menage trois seems about to repeat itself when Adam discovers his wife's father was less innocent than he had thought Set mainly in contemporary London partly in France the action also harks back to the 1970's The narrative evokes the style of the nineteenth century novelists and their themes desire guilt pleasure Pastoral landscapes alternate with those of the inner city and the past's interaction with the present is acted out by ghosts The dead father haunts his son in real life Vinny haunts her sister and the whole novel is haunted by one of its great earliest exponents Charlotte Bronte and her passionate search for creative fulfilment

Neo-Victorian Biofiction, 2020-09-07 This volume explores the many paradoxes of neo Victorian biofiction a genre that yokes together the real and the imaginary biography and fiction and generates oxymoronic combinations like creative facts fictional truth or poetic truthfulness Contemporary biofictions recreating nineteenth century lives demonstrate the crucial but always ethically ambiguous revision and supplementation of the historical archive Due to the tension between ethical empathy and consumerist voyeurism between traumatic testimony and exploitative expos the epistemological response is per force one of hermeneutic suspicion and iconoclasm In the final account this volume highlights neo Victorianism s deconstruction of master narratives and the consequent democratic rehabilitation of over looked microhistories
