Roberts, 2015-02-23 On the hill of Beaus jour one April morning in the year 1750 A D a little group of French soldiers stood watching with gestures of anger and alarm the approach of several small ships across the yellow waters of Chignecto Bay The ships were flying British colors Presently they came to anchor near the mouth of the Missaguash a narrow tidal river about two miles to the southeast of Beaus jour There the ships lay swinging at their cables and all seemed quiet on board The group on Beaus jour knew that the British would attempt no landing for some hours as the tide was scarce past the ebb and
