Thoughts about Art Philip Gilbert Hamerton, 1871      Thinking Art Antoon van den Braembussche, 2009-09-29 In the twentieth century avant garde movements have pushed the concept of art far beyond its traditional boundaries In this dynamical process of constant renewal the prestige of thinking about art as a legitimizing practice has come to the fore So it is hardly surprising that the past decades have been characterized by a revival or even breakthrough of philosophy of art as a discipline However the majority of books on aesthetics fail to combine a systematical philosophical discourse with a real exploration of art practice Thinking Art attempts to deal with this traditional shortcoming It is indeed not only an easily accessible and systematic account of the classical modern and postmodern theories of art but also concludes each chapter with an artist's studio in which the practical relevance of the discussed theory is amply demonstrated by concrete examples Moreover each chapter ends with a section on further reading in which all relevant literature is discussed in detail Thinking Art provides its readers with a theoretical framework that can be used to think about art from a variety of perspectives More particularly it shows how a fruitful cross fertilization between theory and practice can be created This book can be used as a handbook within departments of philosophy history of art media and cultural studies cultural history and of course within art academies Though the book explores theories of art from Plato to Derrida it does not presuppose any acquaintance with philosophy from its readers It can thus be read also by artists art critics museum directors and anyone interested in the meaning of art

The Arts and Their Mission Rudolf Steiner, 2023-10-03 8 lectures Oslo and Dornach May 18 June 9 1923 CW 276 Having remained stationary we can no longer see the spiritual in the physical we consider only the physical as such This is materialism A current has entered human evolution that is if I may use the expression hostile to development Humanity shuns the coining of new concepts it prefers to continue on with the old We must overcome this hostility toward development When we instead become friends of development then we will acquire a quite natural relationship to anthroposophical spiritual development and pass over from antiquated needs to the truly modern need of humanity namely to raise ourselves to the spiritual Rudolf Steiner May 27 1923 In these inspired lectures from 1923 Rudolf Steiner weaves the different art forms including painting architecture and music into a grand tapestry of human experience and expression In the process he reveals how each artistic medium contains its own mysteries how architecture arises out of the soul's need to transition from the spatial to the spiritual world after death how the art of costuming arises out of the soul's pre earthly experiences in the world of spirit and is thus an expression in color and form of the soul's original nature how sculpture emerges from an inner sense for the creative formative forces of the etheric body how painting can overcome spatial perspective through a new relationship to the world of colors through color perspective how music can receive a new direction from the depth dimension of the single tone which expands into melody and harmony how poetry can be deepened through an inner grasp of the qualities inherent in recitation and declamation through creative speech and how the new art of eurythmy arising out of the movement activity of the human archetype stands midway between mime indicative gesture and dance ecstatic gesture as an art of expressive gesture Thus Steiner outlines a path toward the reunion of that ancient trinity science truth art beauty and religion goodness It was in the womb of the ancient mysteries where knowledge was not only a matter for the mind but was carried over into religious rites that the arts had their origin Today we learn facts and figures and believe we have understood reality To an ancient humanity this intellectual mode of understanding would have seemed lifeless and sterile In the ancient world knowledge became lived artistic experience and religious deed Modern humanity must once again give wings to knowledge must seek a deepening of the cognitive life through transformative artistic feeling if we are to find our way out of our world crisis which is at its core a crisis of the soul This remarkable volume packed with profound and far reaching insights bears within it the seeds for the renewal of the arts in our time Includes four color plates of Rudolf Steiner s blackboard drawings This book is a translation of Das K nstlerische in seiner Weltmission 4th ed Rudolf Steiner Verlag 2002 GA 276 Cover Image Bright Noonday by David Newbatt from Goethe The Fairy Tale of the Green Snake and the Beautiful Lily Wynstones Press 2006 The American Magazine of Art ,1928 Language, Thought, Art and Existence Mwanaka, Tendai R.,2017-08-09 This book comprises 19 creative non fiction pieces and essays centred around the topics of language thought art and existence seen through the prism of practising artist in contemporary Africa The collection continues with Zimbabwe s Tendai Mwanaka s creative non fiction ideology of presenting non fiction in a creative fresh easy reading simple language With most of the essays driven by personal stories the author ably renders them accessible to a wide spectrum of readers from the scholarly to the journalistic and the general The pieces are grouped according to the topics with the language essays starting the book followed by thought existential and art essays In tune with the adage the personal is political Mwanaka lets the personal drive these essays as he tries to investigate and conversationally navigate his thoughts beliefs feelings and experience on language existence and art This is an invaluable contribution to the academic establishment social theorists linguists literary theorists journalists activists and the general readership Essays on Aesthetics John Fisher,1983 Great Thoughts from Master Minds ,1909 Thoughts About Art Philip Gilbert Hamerton,2023-08-18 Reprint of the original first published in 1873 The School Arts Magazine Pedro Joseph Lemos,1920 Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler,Isaac Kaufman Funk,William Seaver Woods,1900 Outlook and Independent ,1901 Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1907 New Outlook ,1901 Architect ,1876 Catalogue...authors, Titles, Subjects, and Classes Brooklyn Public Library,1878 Index-guide to Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern Edward Cornelius Towne,1899 Thoughts About Art Philip G. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
