Troubled Heritage Jeanne Wilson, 1978-05 Troubled Heritage Jeanne Wilson, 1977-01-01 Troubled Heritage Mary Richmond (Novelist.), 1942 Troubled Heritage Mary RICHMOND (pseud.), 1942 Future Stories in the Global Heritage Industry Alia Yunis, Robert Parthesius, Niccolò Acram Cappelletto, 2024-09-09

Future Stories in the Global Heritage Industry explores what happens to the heritage and memory of communities that find themselves in contact with the rest of the world when they become UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Written by an interdisciplinary group of emerging scholars and heritage professionals connected to these sites through their own heritage, this volume considers how a community can engage with a site's globalized importance while retaining its own sense of history. Drawing on oral histories, ethnographic methods, film interviews, and archival research, the book adds to the discourse around Critical Heritage Studies. It does so by putting theories into practice in selected heritage sites in Romania, the UAE, India, Eritrea, China, Mozambique, Tanzania, and Malaysia. The book also contributes toward the dismantlement of the many dichotomies imposed on heritage from the divisions between natural and cultural or tangible and intangible in the UNESCO Conventions and Eurocentric heritage practices. Looking toward the future of the past, the volume asks whether heritage can be objectively or equitably managed as it increasingly comes into conflict with issues around nation building, climate change, social class, ethnicity, religion, and gender. Future Stories in the Global Heritage Industry will be of great interest to academics and students engaged in the study of heritage, sociology, public history, history, international studies, sociology, and anthropology.

Routledge Companion to Global Heritage Conservation Vinayak Bharne, Trudi Sandmeier, 2019-02-12

The act of identifying, protecting, restoring, and reusing buildings, districts, and built landscapes of historic and cultural significance is at its best a reflective and consequential process of urban and socio-economic reform. It has the potential to reconcile conflicting memories, meanings, and cultural tensions, bridging and expanding the perceived boundaries of multiple disciplines towards bigger aspirations of city making and social justice. How and where do such aspirations overlap and differ across nations and societies across the world? In places with different histories, governance structures, regulatory stringency, and populist dispositions, who are the specific players and what are the actual processes that bring about bigger and deeper change beyond just the conservation of an architectural or urban entity of perceived value? This collection of scholarly articles by theorists, academics, and practitioners explores the global complexity, guises, and potential of heritage conservation. Going from Tokyo to Cairo, Shenzhen to Rome, and Delhi to Moscow, this volume examines a vast range of topics: indigenous habitats, urban cores, vernacular infrastructure, colonial towns, squatters, burial sites, war zones, and modern landmarks. It surfaces numerous inherent issues: water stress, deforestation, social oppression, poverty, religion, immigration, and polity. Expanding the definitions of heritage conservation as both a professional discipline and socio-cultural catalyst, this book argues that the intellectual and praxis limits of heritage conservation as the agency of reading, defining, and intervening with built heritage.

can be expansive aimed at bigger positive change beyond a specific subject or object plural enmeshed with multiple fields and specializations and empathetic born from the actual socio political realities of a place Contemporary Issues in Cultural Heritage Tourism Jamie Kaminski, Angela M Benson, David Arnold, 2013-12-13 The perceived quality of a destination's cultural offering has long been a significant factor in determining tourist choices of destination More recently the need to present touristic offerings that include cultural experiences and heritage has become widely recognised that this aspect of the tourism experience is an important differentiator of destinations as well as being amongst the most manageable This has also led to an increase in the management of such experiences through special exhibitions events and festivals as well as through ensuring more routine and controlled access to heritage sites Reflecting the increasing application of cultural heritage as a driver for tourism and development this book provides for the first time a cohesive volume on the subject that is theoretically rich practically applied and empirically grounded Written by expert scholars and practitioners in the field the book covers a broad range of theoretical perspectives of cultural heritage tourism regeneration policy stakeholders marketing socio economic development impacts sustainability volunteering and ICT It takes a broad view integrating international examples of sites monuments as well as intangible cultural heritage motor vehicle heritage events and modern art museums This significant book furthers knowledge of the theory and application of tourism within the context of cultural heritage and will be of interest to students researchers and practitioners in a range of disciplines

Architecture and Architects in Socialist Poland Błażej Ciarkowski, 2025-09-30 The book presents the history of Polish architecture and architects in the years 1944-1989 focusing on selected issues including both the development of architecture itself and the conditions of practicing architecture in the socialist country The history of architecture and architects in socialist Poland is described not only from the perspective of an architectural historian and researcher but also from the perspective of active participants in the events described The text is based on historical sources and literature as well as on numerous interviews with architects and urban planners who played an important role in post war reconstruction implementation of the socialist realist doctrine creation of the most significant buildings and monuments and development of the local version of socialist modernism or post modernism It gives the floor back to those whose voice was hardly heard after the collapse of the socialist system in 1989 The book should become an interesting source of information for those interested in the material culture of former socialist countries Although it focuses on socialist Poland it can be used as material for comparative studies of mutual relations between East and West in post war Europe as well as for analysis of the situation of architecture and architects in socialist countries
