Truth About Castles:

The Truth about Castles Gillian Clements, 1988 The castles of England, their story and structure sir James Dixon Mackenzie (bart.), 1897 101 Amazing Facts about Castles Jack Goldstein, 2014-06-18 Did you know that the world's oldest football was found in a room at Stirling Castle Do you know what the person in charge of a castle's buttery is called What is the difference between a trebuchet and a mangonel And what is an oubliette The answers to all of these questions and more can be found in the excellent quick read guide to castles Whether you're King Richard the Lionheart himself or just some unlucky peasant this book containing over one hundred facts is sure to keep you entertained

Donnington Castle: A Royalist Story Colomb (Colonel, George Hatton), 1871 A Passion for Castles Janet Brennan-Inglis, 2022-10-06 In the 1880s two Edinburgh architects began to survey measure and sketch the castles of Scotland travelling the length and breadth of the country on trains bicycles and on foot Together they produced the five magnificent volumes of The Castellated and Domestic Architecture of Scotland an unrivalled work of research that surveys more than 700 of Scotland's castellated buildings ranging from great medieval fortresses to small lairds houses with pepper pot turrets and is illustrated with thousands of sketches and plans The first part of A Passion for Castles tells the life stories of David MacGibbon and Thomas Ross and their work as Edinburgh architects before they embarked on their magisterial survey revealing interesting and previously unknown details about the two men The second part of the book sets their enormously ambitious castles project in its historical context and describes how MacGibbon and Ross managed to achieve their pioneering systematic and comprehensive survey The final part of the book provides a regional overview of the current status of all the castles surveyed by MacGibbon and Ross followed by a thematic exploration of those that have been lost those that have been transformed and those at risk of collapse before posing questions about what the future holds for the castles of Scotland

Truth, 1927 The Castle Builder Etta Merrick Graves, 1916 Transactions Carmarthenshire Antiquarian Society and Field Club, 1906 Late Medieval Castles Robert Liddiard, 2016 A collection of the most significant articles in castle studies with contributions from scholars in history archaeology historic buildings and landscape archaeology The castles of the late medieval period represent some of the finest medieval monuments in Britain with an almost infinite capacity to fascinate and draw controversy They are also a source of considerable academic debate The contents of this volume represent key works in castle scholarship Topics discussed include castle warfare fortress customs architectural design and symbolism spatial planning and the depiction of castles in medieval romance The contributions also serve to highlight the diversity of approaches to the medieval castle ranging from the study of documentary and literary sources analysis of fragmentary architectural remains and the recording of field archaeology The result is a survey that offers an in depth analysis of castle building from the thirteenth to the fifteenth centuries and places castles within their broader social architectural and political contexts Robert Liddiard is Professor of History University of East Anglia Contributors Nicola Coldstream Charles Coulson
