Unobtrusive Measures:

Unobtrusive Measures Eugene J. Webb, Donald T. Campbell, Richard D. Schwartz, Lee Sechrest, 1999-10-12 Thirty five years ago the four authors of this book addressed the problems of validity in social science research They were interested in new and unused methods for obtaining information The original edition and an expanded version have often been cited as justification for using novel means to supplement if not replace conventional techniques especially survey and archival research Illustrations abound in this book While the novelty of the illustrations will keep many a graduate student amused the more serious purpose is to authorize and motivate ingenuity in obtaining information Even more fundamental is the strategy of combining very different methods so that research results can by triangulation withstand threats to validity that so frequently invalidate single measure conventional research

Unobtrusive Measures; Nonreactive Research in the Social Sciences, 1966 Planning and Conducting Needs Assessments Belle Ruth Witkin, James W.

Altschuld, 1995-09-07 Despite the increasing necessity for needs assessments in a variety of fields much confusion still prevails on how to conduct such assessments successfully This book is a practical guide to that end The authors first introduce a three phase model preassessment assessment and postassessment to clarify the distinctions between the needs of primary service recipients and the people and resources that exist They go on to describe methods appropriate for gathering data for assessing needs and for causal analysis The presentation of the framework the coverage of several approaches for analyzing data the balanced description of qualitative and quantitative methodologies and the multiple case studies and Handbook of Research Methods in Public Administration Sondra Brandler, Camille P. Roman, 2007-11-14 Describing new techniques and novel applications Handbook of Research Methods in Public Administration Second Edition demonstrates the use of tools designed to meet the increased complexity of problems in government and non profit organizations with ever more rigorous and systematic research It presents detailed information on conceptuali
