Unsecular Man Andrew M. Greeley, 1972 Views religion from a sociological perspective emphasizing the similarities of modern religious functions and institutions to those of ancient civilizations American Catholic Arts and Fictions Paul Giles, 1992-06-26 Examines how secular transformations of religious ideas have helped to shape the style and substance of works by American writers filmmakers and artists from Catholic backgrounds The Oxford Handbook of Religion, Conflict, and Peacebuilding Atalia Omer, R. Scott Appleby, David Little, 2015-01-28 This volume provides a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of the scholarship on religion conflict and peacebuilding Looking far beyond the traditional parameters of the field the contributors engage deeply with the legacies of colonialism missionary activism secularism orientalism and liberalism as they relate to the discussion of religion violence and nonviolent transformation and resistance Featuring numerous case studies from various contexts and traditions the volume is organized thematically into five different parts It begins with an up to date mapping of scholarship on religion and violence and religion and peace The second part explores the challenges related to developing secularist theories on peace and nationalism broadening the discussion of violence to include an analysis of cultural and structural forms In the third section the chapters explore controversial topics such as religion and development religious militancy and the freedom of religion as a keystone of peacebuilding The fourth part locates notions of peacebuilding in spiritual practice by focusing on constructive resources within various traditions the transformative role of rituals youth and interfaith activism in American university campuses religion and solidarity activism scriptural reasoning as a peacebuilding practice and an extended reflection on the history and legacy of missionary peacebuilding The volume concludes by looking to the future of peacebuilding scholarship and the possibilities for new growth and progress Bringing together a diverse array of scholars this innovative handbook grapples with the tension between theory and practice cultural theory and the legacy of the liberal peace paradigm offering provocative elastic and context specific insights for strategic peacebuilding processes Secularization Karel Dobbelare, 2002 In an epoch in which religion has explicitly and sometimes violently returned to the forefront of the global public scene the process of secularization that has fundamentally marked Western and particularly European societies demands attention and analysis This book written from a sociological perspective takes up that challenge The author distinguishes three levels of secularization Societal secularization which is a typical consequence of the processes of modernity and of programmes of laicisation promoted by political parties Individual secularization that is manifested in the decline of church commitment occurring as individuals re compose their personal beliefs and practices in a religion la carte and as the individual s meaning system becomes compartmentalized and religion is separated from other areas of life A third level organizational secularization covers the incidence of the adaptation of religious bodies to secularized society The entire work is marked by meticulous description and analysis of numerous theoretical and empirical studies and by due recognition of the intricate relationship between levels of secularization and the impact of various actors in the many conflicts over religion's roles
