Third Mind Creative Writing Through Vis:

Third Mind Tonya Foster, Kristin Prevallet, 2002 Making the connection between writing and visual art can activate what William Burroughs called The Third Mind from the confluence of the two art forms something new or other emerges This new anthology of essays about the challenges and rewards of uniting art and writing not only demonstrates how visual art can spark wonderful student writing but goes much further offering novel insights into the creative process The result editors Foster and Prevallet demonstrate produces a new spirit of collaboration one which in turn opens up dramatic possibilities for teachers students and the classroom dynamic The 20 essays in Third Mind by teachers poets writers artists and museum educators from across the country offer ideas on a diverse array of artistic disciplines among them quilt making Chinese calligraphy abstract painting and photographic portraiture Third Mind also features 20 pages of gorgeous color plates as well as an inspiring bibliography of works on visual art and creative writing

Writing through Music Jann Pasler, 2007-12-12 Drawing on a passion for music a remarkably diverse interdisciplinary toolbox and a gift for accessible language that speaks equally to scholars and the general public Jann Pasler invites us to read as she writes through music unveiling the forces that affect our sonic encounters In an extraordinary collection of historical and critical essays some appearing for the first time in English Pasler deconstructs the social moral and political preoccupations lurking behind aesthetic taste Arguing that learning from musical experience is vital to our understanding of past present and future Pasler's work trenchantly reasserts the role of music as a crucial contributor to important public debates about who we can be as individuals communities and nations The author's wide ranging and perceptive approaches to musical biography and history challenge us to rethink our assumptions about important cultural and philosophical issues including national identity and postmodern musical hybridity material culture the economics of power and the relationship between classical and popular music Her work uncovers the self fashioning of modernists such as Vincent d'Indy Augusta Holm's Jean Cocteau and John Cage and addresses categories such as race gender and class in the early 20th century in ways that resonate with experiences today She also explores how music uses time and constructs narrative Pasler's innovative and influential methodological approaches such as her notion of question spaces open up the complex cultural and political networks in which music participates This provides us with the reasons and tools to engage with music in fresh and exciting ways In these thoughtful essays music whether beautiful or cacophonous reassuring or seemingly incomprehensible comes alive as a bearer of ideas and practices that offers deep insights into how we negotiate the world Jann Pasler's Writing through Music brilliantly demonstrates how music can be a critical lens to focus the contemporary critical cultural historical and social issues of our time
