Unearned Suffering:

The Power of Unearned Suffering Mika Edmondson,2016-12-09 This book explores the roots and relevance of Martin Luther King Jr s approach to black suffering King s conviction that unearned suffering is redemptive reflects a nearly 250 year old tradition in the black church going back to the earliest Negro spirituals From the bellies of slave ships the foot of the lynching tree and the back of segregated buses black Christians have always maintained the hope that God could make a way out of no way and somehow bring good from the evils inflicted on them As a product of the black church tradition King inherited this widespread belief developed it using Protestant liberal concepts and deployed it throughout the Civil Rights Movement of the 50 s and 60 s as a central pillar of the whole non violent movement Recently critics have maintained that King s doctrine of redemptive suffering creates a martyr mentality which makes victims passive in the face of their suffering this book argues against that critique King s concept offers real answers to important challenges and it offers practical hope and guidance for how beleaguered black citizens can faithfully engage their suffering today

Suffering and Bioethics Ronald M. Green,Nathan J. Palpant,2014-08-01 Long before it cured disease medicine aimed to relieve suffering but despite that precedence the relief of suffering often takes a back seat in today s biomedical research and treatment Modern bioethics too has been slow to come to terms with suffering Attention to ethical quandaries has sometimes displaced attention to the experience of patients This book seeks to place suffering at the center of bioethical thinking once again Among the questions its contributors explore are What is the meaning of suffering How does it relate to pain If there can be pain without suffering can there be suffering without pain Does suffering require advanced cognitive abilities Can animals suffer Many believe that we have strong obligations to relieve or minimize suffering what are the limits of these obligations Does the relief of suffering justify the termination of a patient s life as proponents of euthanasia maintain What is the bearing of suffering on the cherished bioethical principle of autonomy Can suffering impair a patient s ability to make reasoned choices To what extent must the encounter with suffering be an important component of medical education Do religious traditions ever move from efforts to explain and relieve suffering to positions that justify and promote it The aim of this book is to undertake a new foray into this foreign territory of suffering With a foreword by the distinguished bioethicist Daniel Callahan its twenty two chapters authored by leading scholars in science and bioethics are organized so as to examine suffering in its biological psychological clinical religious and ethical dimensions

Christianity, Tragedy, and Holocaust Literature Michael R. Steele, 1995-07-24 Discusses the relationship or the lack of one between Holocaust literature and theories of tragedy and examines Christianity's influence on tragedy and tragic theory as well as the impact of Christianity on the reading of Holocaust literature Focuses especially on the incongruence between Western tragic literature and the literature of atrocity the Holocaust Delineates five key components of the theories of tragedy e.g. necessity destiny redemptive knowledge suffering innocence guilt human affirmation characteristics of the tragic hero and raises questions regarding their applicability to Holocaust literature focusing on works by Elie Wiesel Tadeusz Borowski Jerzy Kosinski and Rolf Hochhuth Notes that tragedy is an integral part of the West's cultural and philosophical history it is also imbued with Christian theological views of transcendence Christianity's claims regarding its supersession of Judaism helped prepare the conditions that were necessary for Jews to become the victims of the Nazis Therefore Christians must reassess their theological views in order to confront the Holocaust and its literature The Political History of Virginia During the Reconstruction Hamilton James Eckenrode, 1904 Theosophy Simplified Irving Steiger Cooper, 1915 The Gospel in All Lands, 1897 The Black Protest Movement Daniel Webster Wynn, 1974 *M. de Tocqueville.
