What Ever:

What Ever Heather Woodbury,2003-09-17 May be the nearest thing to an American Ulysses wildly funny and infinitely sad Fintan O Toole The Irish times Focusing on the lives of more than a dozen characters among them the Oregon rave boy Skeeter the progressive thinking octogenarian Violet remembering her life from her bohemian youth in prewar Paris to her jazz clubbing in postwar Greenwich Village and the street smart prostitute Bushie holding forth on the profanity of the world Heather Woodbury has forged a unique kind of fiction that combines the immediacy of performance art with the narrative structure and subtle characterization of a traditional novel Taking off from her acclaimed one woman show of the same title Woodbury continually surprises in this novel with her ability to create new forms while always locating the unique resonant humanity that links all the characters to one another and to the reader What Ever Happened to the Faculty? Mary Burgan,2006-11-24 In this provocative work Mary Burgan surveys the deterioration of faculty influence in higher education From campus planning curriculum and instructional technology to governance pedagogy and academic freedom she urges far greater consideration for the perspective of the faculty Burgan evokes the pervasive atmosphere of charge and counter charge on U S campuses where competition trumps reason not only in athletics but also in research faculty recruitment and fund raising Relating this winner take all mentality to the overspecialization of faculty and to overreliance on non tenure track instructors Burgan suggests that improving life on campus depends on faculty members successful engagement with their administrative colleagues as well as their students Informed by experience fueled by conviction and full of practical strategic advice for the future What Ever Happened to the Faculty is an excellent resource for administrators and faculty who are eager to change the tone and trajectory of contemporary higher education Whatever Happened to the Soul? Warren S.
