The Crossroads Brett Heintzman, 2015-01-21 We've lost our way and God is calling us to return to Him Every church walks a path comprised of methods programs worship styles etc The paths our churches travel may have served us well in the past but they are losing their effectiveness with every passing day Christian churches in America are facing the challenge of decline yet many cling to their current paths expecting fresh results of revival and renewal We are deceived and need direction God told Israel through the prophet Jeremiah This is what the LORD says Stand at the crossroads and look ask for the ancient paths ask where the good way is and walk in it and you will find rest for your souls But you said We will not walk in it Jeremiah 6 16 NIV Today churches are standing at a crossroads The Crossroads is a critical point of decision that can mean life and fruitfulness or death and extinction depending on the choices we make today Will we stay on the unfruitful paths or will we seek God for the ancient paths of His choosing Paths of Holy Spirit power and Kingdom purposes At the crossroads the choice must be made The Crossroads points the way to the ancient paths of true Kingdom fruitfulness

To Be Cared For Nathaniel Roberts, 2016-04-26 To Be Cared For offers a unique view into the conceptual and moral world of slum bound Dalits untouchables in the South Indian city of Chennai Focusing on the decision by many women to embrace locally specific forms of Pentecostal Christianity Nathaniel Roberts challenges dominant anthropological understandings of religion as a matter of culture and identity as well as Indian nationalist narratives of Christianity as a foreign ideology that disrupts local communities Far from being a divisive force conversion integrates the slum community Christians and Hindus alike by addressing hidden moral fault lines that subtly pit residents against one another in a national context that renders Dalits outsiders in their own land

Jeremiah and Lamentations (ESV Edition) Philip Graham Ryken, 2016-05-13 The prophet Jeremiah is a supreme example of how believers can live well in a society that has turned against God While the book of Jeremiah chronicles the last desperate days of Jerusalem before it is conquered by an invading army Lamentations expresses the cries of Jeremiah's heart for the fallen city Together the two books reflect on the meaning of human suffering and illustrate the eternal principle that a man will reap what he sows In this commentary Philip Graham Ryken helps pastors church leaders and Bible teachers understand and teach these spiritually relevant books inspiring readers to respond to God's personal call to live for him in these troubled times Part of the Preaching the Word series

Change Your Thoughts, Change Your Life Dr. David Stoop, 2018-06-19 Did you know most of our patterns of behavior are set by the time we are six years old No wonder it's so hard to change Dr David Stoop shows readers that the true way to lasting change is in the renewing of our minds which we accomplish when we faithfully read God's Word and meditate on it daily He clearly shows how to move from fear to love from resentment to gratitude from lust to purity from loneliness to connection from idolatry to contentment and from mistrust to trust Anyone eager to find change that lasts will welcome this practical and encouraging message

Modern Christianity Dennis Loze, 2010-10 Almost 2 billion people profess to be Christians whilst they have differences in doctrine they generally share similar beliefs The truth is most never truly study the Bible many others never even open it Most professing Christians have no idea what it teaches on almost any subject Their beliefs are derived from assumptions based on what they have been told the Bible says They can readily give their definition of what the Bible says but cannot give the actual Bible definition Jesus said Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the prophets I have not come to abolish them but to fulfil them I tell you the truth until heaven and earth disappear not the smallest letter not the least stroke of a pen will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be least in the Kingdom of heaven but whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the Kingdom of heaven Matthew 5:17-19 New International Version Judeo Christianity heritage is so important to understand but unfortunately very few Christians have had the courage or encouragement to familiarise themselves with this heritage The roots of Christianity run so deep into the Hebrew soil but the actual study of the Hebrew world has been so superficial and also deemed irrelevant Have we been guilty of allowing Man's Law replacing God's Law Christians should re-examine their Jewish roots so as to affect a more authentic Biblical understanding and lifestyle
