Esau,2012-05-21 Essay from the year 2010 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 0 University of Tübingen language English abstract When you read The Yellow Wall Paper written by Charlotte Perkins Gilman the first time it gives you on one hand a feeling of compassion for the narrator and on the other hand you feel anger for the rude way she is treated by her husband and doctor and for the injustice the narrator has to bear Nowadays where it would be unimaginable for a woman to accept this destiny you cannot understand why the narrator does not defend herself against her medical therapy and the way her husband is treating her In the 19th century when this story probably takes place it was the most usual way to cure women with mental problems To analyze the story it must be related to the context of the 19th century and not of these days The medical knowledge and the relationship between husband and wife were just absolutely different than today By looking on marriage and medicine in the time Charlotte Perkins Gilman wrote The Yellow Wall Paper it becomes clear that neither her husband nor her medical therapy can be called unfair or unjust at least not in the historical context The Painters Magazine and Paint and Wall Paper Dealer ,1926 Print Rollers Used in the Manufacture of Wall Paper...differences in Costs of Production of Print Rollers in the United States and in the Principal Competing Country, as
