Zero Star Hotel:

Zero Star Hotel Anselm Berrigan, 2002 Poetry The son of Ted Berrigan and Alice Notley Anselm Berrigan has been surrounded by poetry and poetics his entire life a fact that was much noted after the publication of his first book INTEGRITY DRAMATIC LIFE also available from SPD But ZERO STAR HOTEL while it will impress most of those early readers may also surprise them Taking family relationships including the death of his step father Douglas Oliver as his subject matter Berrigan's new work evinces a startling range and depth acute anger confusion frustration and stark awareness of the complexity of his poetic inheritance While these poems manage to practice the surreal playfulness Berrigan mastered at an early age the context is darker the clever phrases ever more ominous some say oblivion it is where you lose the stains on your ivory semi see through untucked dress shirt but the stains they reappear on the other side and you will pay to have them removed from Zero Star Hotel Kevin Killian

Organizational Entrepreneurship, Politics and the Political Carine Farias, Pablo Fernandez, Daniel Hjorth, Robin Holt, 2020-12-17 Entrepreneurship as the creation of new organizations has globally become an appealing call for individuals and governments alike Too often still it is simply associated with the idea of enterprise thus sustaining a pervasive politics of homo economicus agents living a measured life in competition based individuality Organizational Entrepreneurship Politics and the Political disconnects entrepreneurship from the politics of enterprise to more fully explore its potential to resist the economic and ethical demand of the enterprise to be instrumentally innovative and instead to disrupt and disturb the established order As such entrepreneurship is seen as inevitably political it is a constant attempt at declassifying existing structures and institutions de normalizing practices and sensemaking to make room for and initiate the new The chapters invite the readers to revisit key concepts in entrepreneurship studies opportunity motivation identity experimentation creative destruction and experimentation by approaching them through a political process lens This book offers a new conceptual repertoire and vocabulary that reconnects entrepreneurship studies with the socio political dimensions of organization creation opening up multiple possibilities for understanding and questioning the meanings and effects of entrepreneurship in society Combining philosophical reflections with organizational and processual perspectives this book will be of interest to academics students and researchers in the areas of business social and political entrepreneurship organization studies and management The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Entrepreneurship and Regional Development

Arts, Politics and Social Movements Elena Raviola, Elen Riot, Claudia Schnugg, 2019-12-10 As reflected in the title of the book the contributions here describe a series of artistic and activist actions in different places sing different forms of aesthetic styles to challenge the existing order of things Nine chapters present specific situations in Europe and the US in a multilocal dialogue This multifaceted collection questions contemporary ideas and actions in the face of the Great Transition It offers a suite of case studies that are linked by elective affinities an immediate and intuitive accordance between both the activists and the authors despite their differences All actors tend to reflect a similar concern for their direct environment in proposing and documenting utopian forms which are also dealing with the past and present with a form of tenderness for the here and there This shared sympathetic interest explains why the book also corresponds to a form of engaged scholarship The chapters contribute to the long roll of historical debates and conflicts on what is to be done at present and in the near and distant future

Leaving Church and Finding God Markus Nann,2023-04-14 The thief Satan comes only to steal and kill and destroy I Jesus have come that they followers of Jesus may have life and have it to the full in abundance fullness John 10 10 How can we experience this fullness Jesus spoke about in this life How can we successfully and permanently prevent or combat this robbery murder and destruction by the enemy How can injured hopeless and disappointed people find salvation and freedom The author chose to answer these and other important questions by writing an exciting non fiction novel rather than a study guide On the natural level you will see how our main character Romana Meier discovers subconscious religious yokes and false teachings With the help of God and her new friends she is set free to experience a powerful fulfilled life of freedom in Jesus Christ The book sheds light on why there are so many problems in today s churches and congregations and what distinguishes these organizations from the original early Christian community of believers You will also find out how this relates to the flight of wild geese On the supernatural level two high ranking representatives of the satanic realm meet on the way to the Success Conference of their Great Leader of Darkness Coming from their assigned territorial earthly realm they exchange ideas and boast about their achievements Everything seems to go according to plan until they meet an invincible opponent
