Stranded On The Information Highway:

Stranded on the Information Highway John Levesque,1996-01-01 The most important commodity of the new millennium will be information In the twenty first century your success in life depends not just on who you know but on what you know about who you know and what you know who knows about what you know about him or her The main tool of this dawning Age of Information is the computer It has already invaded virtually every corner of our lives from the corporate work station to the spare bedroom In the process society is splitting into two distinct camps people who are enthusiastic about the new information technology and people who are enthusiastic about moving to Outer Mongolia In this new humour collection Leacock Medal winner John Levesque explores cyberspace inner space and other frontiers of daily life Stranded On The Information Highway is neither a ringing affirmation nor a passionate denunciation of the way we live Instead it asks an all important question Is there an instruction manual for this thing

Lost in Cyurbia James Harkin,2010-09-07 The early twentieth century saw the slow but steady exodus of the population from inner cities to the suburbs We are currently witnessing a similar transformation as our new century establishes itself but in an entirely different realm As new technologies proliferate personal computers the communication gadgetry of mobile devices and access to the internet our culture is participating in a mass electronic migration James Harkin christens this destination to Cyurbia the ether of online where we spend so much of our lives Once upon a time there were no text messaging no e mail and no social networking sites like Facebook Bebo Twitter and MySpace The introduction of these new forums for communication has radically transformed the way that we live and we can only guess what will come next Innovative and extremely timely Lost in Cyurbia describes the architecture of our digital life how it has developed over the past seventy years and how it will evolve in the future The narrative recounts how the theories of Norbert Weiner the inventor of cybernetics and Marshall McLuhan inspired the counterculture radicals in the sixties and seventies and traces how their pioneering idealistic and theoretical work laid the groundwork for a system whose central idea is bringing about direct communication between peers outside the reach of authority Harkin explores what it means to be in the loop and our obsession with instant access to information and how it is shared over networks and considers what has been lost and what has been gained Are we more connected than ever before or more isolated Have our thinking processes been forever altered Is the democratic nature of the net slowly being eroded by corporate interests Or as once hoped will the net enable the awakening of a new kind of global consciousness

The Lord, the Link, and the Lost The Link Baptist Church,2019-03-29 This book is designed to reach this generation for our Lord Jesus Christ It is our desire to reach the lost at all cost The Lord has blessed us abundantly in our spiritual and personal lives and we want the world to know about Jesus and his saving grace It is our desire to share our faith with those that either don't know about or don't understand salvation EDN,1995 Lost in the Shuffle United States. Congress. House. Committee on Homeland Security. Subcommittee on Transportation Security and Infrastructure Protection,2011

Letters from Linda M. Montano Linda M. Montano, 2012-10-12 Letters from Linda M Montano is an anthology of writings by one of the seminal performance artists of the last century It provides an autobiographical and historical record of Montano s artistic practice over the last thirty years collecting together stories fairytales letters interviews manifestos and other previously unpublished writings At the same time the book acts as a how to manual for aspiring performance artists offering practical guidance for students and a range of exercises that Montano has used in her teachings and workshops Finally Letters from Linda M Montano represents a performance in itself in which the artist considers the process of writing creating and bringing the work to fruition as another form of endurance performance similar to that of her durational works
