Stranger Than Paradise:

Slow Movies Ira Jaffe, 2014-05-14 In all film there is the desire to capture the motion of life to refuse immobility Agnes Varda has noted But to capture the reality of human experience cinema must fasten on stillness and inaction as much as motion Slow Movies investigates movies by acclaimed international directors who in the past three decades have challenged mainstream cinema's reliance on motion and action More than other realist art cinema slow movies by Lisandro Alonso Nuri Bilge Ceylan Pedro Costa Jia Zhang ke Abbas Kiarostami Cristian Mungiu Alexander Sokurov Bela Tarr Gus Van Sant and others radically adhere to space times in which emotion is repressed along with motion editing and dialogue yield to stasis and contemplation action surrenders to emptiness if not death 100 Greatest Cult Films Christopher J.

Olson, 2018-04-12 The term cult film may be difficult to define but one thing is certain A cult film is any movie that has developed a rabid following for one reason or another From highly influential works of pop art like Eraserhead and Faster Pussycat Kill Kill to trash masterpieces such as Miami Connection and Fateful Findings thousands of movies have earned recognition as cult classics over the years and new movies rise to cult status every year So how do viewers searching for the best or most important cult films decide where to start In 100 Greatest Cult Films Christopher J Olson highlights the most provocative intriguing entertaining and controversial films produced over the last century The movies included here have either earned reputations as bona fide cult classics or have in some way impacted our understanding of cult cinema often transcending traditional notions of good and bad while featuring memorable characters unforgettably shocking scenes and exceptionally quotable dialogue With detailed arguments for why these films deserve to be considered among the greatest of all time Olson provides readers fodder for debate and a jumping off point for future watching A thought provoking and accessible look at dozens of cinematic treasures this resource includes valuable information on the films creators and institutions that have shaped cult cinema Ultimately The 100 Greatest Cult Films offers readers from casual cinephiles film scholars and avid fans alike a chance to discover or re discover some of the most memorable films of all time

Sundancing John Anderson, 2013-04-16 Every winter 8 000 feet above sea level in the Utah snow the hopes and dreams of young moviemakers are put on display at the Sundance Film Festival the haven for independent films where you can show up a kid and go home a star In barely twenty years of existence the festival now overseen by Robert Redford's Sundance Institute has assumed tremendous importance for today's film culture during the annual ten day event tiny Park City is so overrun by agents publicists studio executives and other Hollywood types that in 1988 they blew out the town's cell phone relay system Film Geoff Andrew, 2001 In this guide ten leading film critics select 15 key movies from a specific genre from silent movies to animation Critics describe each film in an essay covering who made it why its artistic features technical interest why they chose it Deutsch-englische Jahrbücher, 1991 Great Scott! Jay Scott, 1994 The Independent Movie Poster Book Spencer Drate, Dave Kehr, 2004 From David Lynch's cult classic Eraserhead to Sofia Coppola's recent sensation Lost in Translation this visually stunning volume is devoted exclusively to independent films showcasing some of the most provocative and original movie posters ever created "Breathin' the Sniper's Breath" Sean Michael David Allan, 2006 Visual Dissent in Twentieth-century China Paola Voci, 2002 Party in a Box Lory Smith, 1999 This behind the scenes glimpse of the prestigious Sundance Film Festival is written by one of the co founders of the festival Party in a Box includes insights and comments from some of the most innovative filmmakers of the past 20 years Independent Visions Donald Lyons, 1994 Far from the big money movie machine of Hollywood lies the cutting edge artistically fresh world of American independent film These independent filmmakers working outside the formulas and constraints of the big studios produce today's most exciting and innovative movies Me and You and Memento and Fargo J.J. Murphy, 2007-03-15 Within the last twenty five years an enormous burst of creative production has emerged from independent filmmakers From Stranger than Paradise 1984 and Slacker 1991 to Gus Van Sant's Elephant 2003 and Miranda July's Me and You and Everyone We Know 2005 indie cinema has become part of mainstream culture But what makes these films independent Is it simply a matter of budget and production values Or are there aesthetic qualities that set them off from ordinary Hollywood entertainment In this groundbreaking new study J.J. Murphy argues that the independent feature film from the 1980s to the present has developed a distinct approach of its own centering on new and different conceptions of cinematic storytelling The film script is the heart of the creative originality to be found in the independent movement Even directors noted for their idiosyncratic visual style or the handling of performers typically originate their material and write their own scripts By studying the principles underlying the independent screenplay we gain a direct sense of the originality of this new trend in American cinema Me and You and Memento and Fargo also presents a unique vision for the aspiring screenwriter Most screenwriting manuals and guidebooks on the market rely on formulas believed to generate saleable Hollywood films Many writers present a three act paradigm as gospel and proceed to lay down very stringent rules for characterization plotting timing of climaxes and so on while others who appear to be more open about such rules turn out to be just as inflexible in their advice Through in depth critical analyses of some of the most significant independent films of recent years J.J. Murphy emphasizes the crucial role that novelty can play in the screenwriting process American Independent John Berra, 2010 With high profile Academy Award nominations and an increasing number of big name actors eager to sign on to promising projects independent films have been at the forefront in recent years like never before But the roots of such critical and commercial successes as The Hurt Locker and Precious can be traced to the first boom of independent cinema in the 1960s when a raft of talented filmmakers emerged to capture the attention of a rapidly growing audience of young viewers A thorough overview of a thriving area of cultural life Directory of World Cinema American Independent chronicles the rise of the independent sector as an outlet for directors who challenge the status quo yet still produce accessible feature films that not only find wide audiences but enjoy considerable box office appeal without sacrificing critical legitimacy Key directors are interviewed and profiled and a sizeable selection of films are referenced and reviewed More than a dozen sub genres including African American cinema queer cinema documentary familial dysfunction and exploitation are individually considered with an emphasis on their ability to engage with tensions inherent in American society Copious illustrations and a range of research resources round out the volume making this a truly comprehensive guide At a time when independent films are enjoying considerable cultural cachet this easy to use yet authoritative guide will find an eager audience in media historians film studies scholars and movie buffs alike

Sight and Sound, 2005 Magill's Cinema Annual 1987 Frank Northen Magill, 1987-10 Saturday Night, 1985 The International Film Index, 1895-1990: Film titles Alan Goble, 1991 International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers: Directors Nicholas Thomas, James Vinson, Samantha Cook, 1990 Each entry contains information lists of cast and crew a select bibliography and an essay by a specialist in the field Many include a still shot

Notes from the Pop Underground Peter Belsito, 1985 Beauty Talk & Monsters Masha Tupitsyn, 2007-04-06 A collection of stories told through the movies that revisits the lower Manhattan art world and the Atlantic haven of Provincetown in the 1980s Masha Tupitsyn's Beauty Talk Monsters is a debut collection of stories told through the movies Equally influenced by Brian De Palma and Kathy Acker Tupitsyn revisits the ruins of a childhood and youth nurtured on the fringe of the glittering lower Manhattan art world and the Atlantic haven of Provincetown in the 1980s Moving fluidly through space time and a range of cinematic frameworks Tupitsyn cuts through the cynical glamour and illusion of Hollywood to a soft secret heart Her narrator a female loner and traveler is caught in the maelstrom of films and images where life is experienced through the eye of a camera lens and seen through the light on the screen In a precise and elegant style Beauty Talk Monsters embraces and confronts a lineage of familiar myths and on and off screen cinematic excess in order to challenge the silver screen's century of power over our dreams and ideals Intimate and intellectual Tupitsyn's stories play with the cinema's most popular icons and images
