Whispers from Heaven Dianne Dominique, 2010-10-25 This book is full of inspirational poetry that has come to Dianne in the last few years It is heart felt because it comes from the heart and soul You will find that it touches you easily and quickly because it is fun to read and enjoy Anyone can read her poems and understand them because they flow like a musical song Here is an example of one of her poems My World Do you realize that when I think of you my world is better Other poems include titles such as Small Miracles Soul mates No Matter What Words I want to be your Valentine Then you will find a few in Spanish such as Dias Pasan Solo tu Presencia Mi Mundo

Safety Education, 1927 All Occasion Inspirational Poems of Reality Audrey M. Virges, 2020-04-30 This book is a collection of inspirational poems of all occasions throughout the year The reader will receive a wonderful blessing in reading this book because the poems are loving and heartfelt They can be read or recited at many different functions or programs

Poetic Ramblings of a Hopeful Heart Sheryl Griffin, 2016-10-13 In this second edition of Poetic Ramblings Ms Griffin shows us the brighter more positive side of her bipolar magnification She leads you down path after path of exploration in search of love and acceptance Poetic Ramblings of a Hopeful Heart allows us to be part of the poets adventure with an often naive optimistic perception She floods your senses with hope and faith as she shares her laughter and tears with you The poet continues to bare her soul her pain and her triumphs in order to enlighten others to not feel so alone She holds you close as she reveals her personal sanguine journey through the labyrinth called love Take a moment to investigate what will surely be an exciting odyssey of emotions

Paidology, 1901 The Square Root of Negative One DAS MANN Jones, 2013-08-19 The writer of this book is an American citizen was in the military overseas and was imprisoned in a foreign system A new language had to be learned all the way around the writer had to learn more than one language of the host There were conversations with various liberation groups from all over Europe including England the isles and even Spain just to name a few The Baader Meinhof Gang the Red Army Faction the Second June Movement Iran had chased these liberators to Germany and the community was full of political prisoners and the police state was very active Even people from the African continent escaped NATO supplied reactionaries who were equipped with Western weaponry especially from Angola and South Africa to name a few So much of the conversations revolved around capitalism communism socialism different dictatorships and apartheid and religious zealots who hated everyone but themselves but really if you hate anyone you hate yourself So finding the square root of negative one is like finding the solution to all these problems that many people have In an ordinary way there is no solution and all answers given seemed to be false Yet because of I there is truth to be told So this math problem translates into social relations in all countries and in many prisons

When Music Migrates Jon Stratton,2016-02-17 When Music Migrates uses rich material to examine the ways that music has crossed racial faultlines that have developed in the post Second World War era as a consequence of the movement of previously colonized peoples to the countries that colonized them This development which can be thought of in terms of diaspora can also be thought of as postmodern in that it reverses the modern flow which took colonizers and sometimes settlers from European countries to other places in the world Stratton explores the concept of song careers referring to how a song is picked up and then transformed by being revisioned by different artists and in different cultural contexts The idea of the song career extends the descriptive term cover in order to examine the transformations a song undergoes from artist to artist and cultural context to cultural context Stratton focuses on the British faultline between the post war African Caribbean settlers and the white Britons Central to the book is the question of identity For example how African Caribbean people have constructed their identity in Britain can be considered through an examination of when Police on My Back was written and how it has been revisioned by Lethal Bizzle in its most recent iteration At the same time this song written by the Guyanese migrant Eddy Grant for his mixed race group The Equals crossed the racial faultline when it was picked up by the punk rock group The Clash Conversely Johnny Reggae originally a pop ska track written about a skinhead by Jonathan King and performed by a group of studio artists whom King named The Piglets was revisioned by a Jamaican studio group called The Roosevelt Singers After this the character of Johnny Reggae takes on a life of his own and appears in tracks by Jamaican toasters as a Rastafarian Johnny s identity is then totally transformed It is this migration of music that will appeal not only to those studying popular music but
