Television Across Europe A Comparative Introduction:

Book Review: Television Across Europe: a Comparative Introduction Markus Wiemker, 2006 Television Across Europe Jan Wieten, Graham Murdock, Peter Dahlgren, 2000-12-11 Combining institutional textual and audience analysis this book introduces students to the factors which have shaped television's development in contemporary Europe and invites them to assess the issues that are at stake in its future Divided into three parts the book moves from the European broadcasting environment through current patterns and trends in programming and programme making to TV genres and issue specific broadcasting Incorporating a range of pedagogical devices boxes of key facts activities and notes for further reading Television across Europe offers an essential introductory guide to television in Western Europe Digital Terrestrial Television in Europe Allan Brown, Robert G. Picard, 2004-09-22 Digital technology for the production transmission and reception of television is expected to replace analogue transmission throughout the world This book gives the exhaustive details of the issues of this changeover in Europe and elsewhere The rollo Private Television in Western Europe K. Donders, C. Pauwels, J. Loisen, 2016-01-23 Private Television in Western Europe Content Markets Policies describes analyses and evaluates the phenomenon of private television in Europe clustered around the themes of European and national experiences content and markets and policies Governing European Communications Maria Michalis, 2007-10-08 The liberalization of communications markets especially from the 1980s onward has witnessed increased regulatory activity within but also above the national state By examining the European case concentrating on the European Union the most advanced example of regionalism Governing European Communications enhances understanding of the trend toward above the national state regulation its drivers and its limitations Analyzing in detail the origins dynamics and evolution of European level communications governance in the postwar era Michalis offers a single comprehensive and up to date account of telecommunications and television policies and regulation and their technological convergence Conflicted Memories Konrad H. Jarausch, Thomas Lindenberger, 2007-05-01 Despite the growing interest in general European history the European dimension is surprisingly absent from the writing of contemporary history In most countries the historiography on the 20th century continues to be dominated by national perspectives Although there is cross national work on specific topics such as occupation or resistance transnational conceptions and narratives of contemporary European history have yet to be worked out This volume focuses on the development of a shared conception of recent European history that will be required as an underpinning for further economic and political integration so as to make lasting cooperation on the old continent possible It tries to overcome the traditional national framing that ironically persists just at a time when organized efforts to transform Europe from an object of debate to an actual subject have some chance of succeeding in making it into a polity in its own right The Nation on Screen Enric Castelló, Alexander Dhoest, Hugh O'Donnell, 2009 oeBut we can still rise now runs a line of Scotland TM s unofficial national anthem Flower of Scotland oeand be the nation again who defeated the English King Edward II in 1314 at the Battle of Bannockburn These short lines tell us much about the concept of the nation Firstly the pronoun of the nation is owe Secondly nationhood remains aspirational for some while it is entirely taken for granted for others Thirdly nations often trace their origins back to an implausibly dim and distant past Finally it points to the fundamentally discursive nature of the nation the nation appears not as something which simply is but as something which can be called into existence through talk official documents official and unofficial national anthems ceremonies and parades monuments and statuary press coverage and increasingly television This book which arose out of a conference held in Tarragona in 2007 focuses on the complex discourses of the nation to be found in the television systems of twelve different countries examining how these circulate in fiction in news and documentary including re enactment formats and in entertainment programmes adverts and the coverage of large scale sporting events The nation which emerges is everywhere and nowhere talked about endlessly but never finally grasped repeatedly staged and re enacted but lacking a foundational script In short it is a site of struggle The stakes are high since the nation when mobilised is a force to be reckoned with and the on going attempts to define it are many varied and often highly creative This book details many such events from the high drama of war reporting to the self mocking irony of ten second commercial spots Javnost, 2002 Television Across Europe Jan Wieten, Graham Murdock, Peter Dahlgren, 2000 Television across Europe analyzes the factors which have shaped the development of television in the post war period in Western Europe and forecasts future issues Television Discourse Nuria Lorenzo-Dus, 2009 With a helpful glossary and extensive guide to further reading Television Discourse is an invaluable resource for all those interested in studying language in the media European Culture and the Media Ib Bondebjerg, Peter Golding, 2004 European Culture and the Media presents new research and thinking on cultural globalisation with special focus on and in depth analysis of a number of cases and dimensions in European media culture and its broader social political and economic context The book is written by some of the most prominent European media researchers from both the humanities and social sciences It offers a provocative and new interdisciplinary look at the modern European media culture and at the same time introduces new theories empirical data and analysis of media communication genres and media institutions Trends in Communication Policy Research Manuel Puppis, Natascha Just, 2012 With contributions from leading international experts from within both the communications industry and academia Trends in Communication Policy Research comprises the very latest developments in the theories methods and practical applications of this dynamic field Topical and politically relevant this authoritative and up to date volume will prove an invaluable reference for students and scholars seeking to understand communication policy issues Media and democracy Frank Marcinkowski, Werner A. Meier, Josef Trappel, 2006 Television Across Europe EU Monitoring and Advocacy Program, Open Society Institute. Network Media Program, 2005 The reports include regional overviews and 20 individual reports focusing on the state of television both public service and commercial broadcasting The countries monitored include the whole of Central and Eastern Europe South eastern Europe selected Western European countries and Turkey

Communications, 2002 From Public Service Broadcasting to Public Service Media Gregory Ferrell Lowe, Jo Bardoel, 2007 The core challenge facing public service broadcasting today is the transition to public service media This understanding characterised discourse among participants in the RIPE 2006 conference in the Netherlands the theme of which was Public Service Broadcasting in the Multimedia Environment Programmes and Platforms The contributors in this volume focus attention on issues of strategic concern and tactical importance in addressing the core challenge A defining Etc

Media and Maltese Society Carmen Sammut, 2007 This seminal work is the first comprehensive analysis of the media landscape in the Mediterranean island of Malta It examines the media owned by political parties trade unions and the church and how they successfully compete for audiences with the public and private sectors Carmen Sammut explores institutional efforts to influence the information flow by means of field observations and in depth interviews in newsrooms These influences are further examined in an analysis of news content and discourse during the referendum campaign for European Union membership In a field where literature often overlooks small states Media and Maltese Society takes advantage of the small context to examine the communication circuit holistically observing traits that British and American journalism lost with the growth of media capitalism Encyclopedia of Blacks in European History and Culture Eric

Martone, 2008-12-08 Blacks have played a significant part in European civilization since ancient times This encyclopedia illuminates blacks in European history literature and popular culture It emphasizes the considerable scope of black influence in and contributions to European culture The first blacks arrived in Europe as slaves and later as laborers and soldiers and black immigrants today along with others are transforming Europe into multicultural states This indispensable set expands our knowledge of blacks in Western civilization More than 350 essay entries introduce students and other readers to the white European response to blacks in their countries the black experiences and impact there and the major interactions between Europe and Africa the Caribbean and the United States that resulted in the settling of blacks in Europe The range of information presented is impressive with entries on noted European political literary and cultural figures of black descent from ancient times to the present major literary works that had a substantial impact on European perceptions of blacks black holidays and festivals the struggle for civil equality for blacks the role and influence of blacks in contemporary European popular culture black immigration to Europe black European identity and much more Offered as well are entries on organizations that contributed to the development of black political and social rights in Europe representations of blacks in European art and cultural symbols and European intellectual and scientific theories on blacks Individual entries on Britain Spain Portugal France Italy Germany the Netherlands Russia Central Europe Scandinavia and Eastern Europe include historical overviews of the presence and contributions of blacks and discussion of country s role in the African slave trade and abolition and its colonies in Africa and the Caribbean Suggestions for further reading accompany each entry A
