The Eastern Before Beeching:

The Eastern Before Beeching John Brodribb,1994 The Minor Railways of East Anglia Rob Shorland-Ball,2020-10-19 A look at the minor railways in eastern England that were once busy transport links and made vital contributions to the social and business heritage Rob Shorland Ball is a former teacher and a born storyteller and so is well aware of the strong local loyalties in East Anglia Norfolk Suffolk and Essex are considered to be very different separate and independent areas by their inhabitants When the author worked in Suffolk he explained that he came from Cambridge which he believed was the front door of East Anglia An elderly Suffolk man to whom he was speaking paused for a while and then said with unarguable finality Here in Suffolk if Cambridge exists at all it is a back door and rarely used By the 1950s and 60s when the author explored the minor railways illustrated in this book they were rarely used so needed to be recorded and their stories told before they were forgotten entirely To bring this book up to date the final section is called Destiny because some of the track beds have survived and flourished with new usage as restored heritage railways footpaths and cycleways and one route as a busy busway A nostalgic look back at long forgotten minor railways in East Anglia Highly recommended Branch Line Light Railway Publications Flyer A brief history of each of the lines together with maps and period photographs that make this an interesting read for those unfamiliar with the minor railways of East Anglia Great Eastern Railway Society Newsletter Dr Beeching's Axe 50 Years On Julian Holland,2013-09-27 Julian Holland s Dr Beeching s Axe 50 Years On is a unique memorial to all that was lost following the publication of the Beeching Report on 27 March 1963 Uniquely the author has tried to include every railway line that was closed as a result of the Beeching Report and more They are all shown on Map 9 in Part 2 of the Report and have been annotated for clarity at the beginning of each regional chapter in the book Needless to say it is not plain sailing there are lines that were marked for closure on the maps but were closed before publication of the Report there are lines that were not originally on Beeching s original hit list but which were closed anyway there are lines that were originally marked down for closure but which were fortunately reprieved There are even one or two which seem to have not existed at all The author has included them all The Eastern, Yesterday and Today Geoffrey Freeman Allen,1982
