Violated Vision:

Vision's Immanence Peter Lurie,2004-08 Lurie takes particular interest in the influence of cinema on Faulkner's fiction and the visual strategies he both deployed and critiqued These include the suggestion of cinematic viewing on the part of readers and of characters in each of the novels the collective and individual acts of voyeurism in Sanctuary and Light in August the exposing in Absalom Absalom and Light in August of stereotypical and cinematic patterns of thought about history and race and the evocation of popular forms like melodrama and the movie screen in If I forget thee Jerusalem Offering innovative readings of these canonical works this study sheds new light on Faulkner's uniquely American modernism
BOOK JACKET Federal Register ,2006-05-16 Getting from Here to There? Power, Politics and Urban Sustainability in North America Ernest J. Yanarella,Robert W. Lancaster,2016-05-04 Getting from Here to There seeks to take the study of sustainable cities into a realm of analysis and critique that has not been seriously investigated in any explicit and systematic manner the sphere of power and politics Using detailed case studies of selected urban sustainability programs some stillborn or short lived others celebrated still others most promising it focuses on the political agencies shaping them and the structural elements either impeding or facilitating efforts to build sustainable cities To accomplish this task the authors utilize three theories or models of urban power growth coalition urban regime and neo Gramscian hegemonic to explore the dynamics of power and politics to better understand these cases and to derive important lessons about getting from here to there These models offer valuable lessons for ongoing or future sustainable city programs community or business groups key policy makers grassroots organizations mayors and urban planners involved in or contemplating moving urban sustainability projects forward as well as students of urban politics and environmental and sustainability researchers Arctic Systems P. Amaria,2013-03-09 For the purpose of publication of these Proceedings the original conference programme has been rearranged to provide a more logical sequence of presentation The beginning sections give the inaugural speech and the six keynote addresses which were delivered at the opening plenary session Following these are the working papers published more or less in the same sequence in which they were presented in the original programme The order of presentation does not necessarily emphasise the importance of any one aspect of the Arctic Systems over others The final reports of the six working groups and their conclusions and recommendations are edited in such a manner as to present them in a standardised format for easy comprehension The editors accept responsibility for any distortion inadvertently introduced in the summarising and editing processes Later sections of the Proceedings give a background to the Conference organization and deliberations and an independent critique of the meeting The directors and those who attended the Conference were conscious of the debt of gratitude owed by them to the Conference chairmen rapporteurs authors of working papers and many individuals for their contributions to the success of the meeting We wish to thank them and it is a pleasure to record their names in these Proceedings Inaugural Speaker Dr J Rennie Whitehead Canada
