Alexander,Mary Alexander,2008 In 1979 Edward P Alexander s Museums in Motion was hailed as a much needed addition to the museum literature In combining the history of museums since the eighteenth century with a detailed examination of the function of museums and museum workers in modern society it served as an essential resource for those seeking to enter to the museum profession and for established professionals looking for an expanded understanding of their own discipline Now Mary Alexander has produced a newly revised edition of the classic text bringing it the twenty first century with coverage of emerging trends resources and challenges New material also includes a discussion of the children s museum as a distinct type of institution and an exploration of the role computers play in both outreach and traditional in person visits

Consumption: The history and regional development of consumption Daniel Miller,2001 Grasping Things Simon J. Bronner,2021-05-11 America stocks its shelves with mass produced goods but fills its imagination with handmade folk objects In Pennsylvania the back to the city housing movement causes a conflict of cultures In Indiana an old tradition of butchering turtles for church picnics evokes both pride and loathing among residents In New York folk art exhibits raise choruses of adoration and protest These are a few of the examples Simon Bronner uses to illustrate the ways Americans physically and mentally grasp things Bronner moves beyond the usual discussions of form and variety in America s folk material culture to explain historical influences on and the social consequences of channeling folk culture into a mass society The Strange

Life of Objects Annette Lemieux,Lelia Amalfitano,Judith Hoos Fox,2010 Catalog of an exhibition held at Krannert Art Museum and Kinkead Pavilion University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign Oct 29 2010 Jan 9 2011 and at Worcester Art Museum Worcester Mass Apr 9 Oct 9 2011 Miraculous Images and Votive Offerings in Mexico Frank Graziano,2016 Mexican statues and paintings like the Virgen de Guadalupe and the Se or de Chalma are endowed with sacred presence and the power to perform miracles Millions of devotees visit their shrines to request miracles for health employment children and countless everyday matters When miracles are granted devotees reciprocate with votive offerings Collages photographs documents texts milagritos hair and braids clothing retablos and various representative objects cover walls at many shrines

Miraculous Images and Votive Offerings in Mexico explores such petitionary devotion in depth through extensive fieldwork supported by research in a vast body of interdisciplinary scholarship. The study's principal themes include sacred power and human agency, reification, projective animation, faith as a cognitive filter, sacred power transfer, social and narrative construction, positive framing, collaborative and deferred control, vows, juramentos, and miracle attribution. The book is written in two alternating voices: one interpretive to provide an understanding of miracles, miraculous images, and votive offerings, and the other narrative to illustrate the interpretive chapters and to bring the reader closer to experiences at the shrines. Among the many miraculous images treated in the book are the Cristo Negro de Otatitlán, Niño del Cacahuatito, Señor de Chalma, Señor de la Misericordia, Tepetitlán, Señor del Rayo, Señor de las Tres Caídas, Teotlalpam, Virgen de los Dolores de Soriano, Virgen de Guadalupe, Virgen del Pueblito, Virgen de Juquila, Virgen de los Remedios, Virgen de San Juan de los Lagos, Virgen de Talpa, Virgen de Tonalico, and Virgen de Zapopan.
