lessons from 15 stories Jesus told minimalist, low-ink version

the prodigal son

Luke 15:11-32

Know with the story of a younger son who demands his share of his father's wealth, leaves home, and squanders everything he inherits during "40 years" of reckless living. When he returns home broke and dejected, expecting judgment, his father instead celebrates him with open arms. Meanwhile, the older son never strays from his profession, working as the farm's "righteous" servant, uncomplaining, and often heart for his father's well-being. This parable challenges us to reflect on how we share power, funds, and our love in the household, and what we're asked to extend to the others.

main characters & attributes

1. The Father - Willing to let go without strings, does everything for, and already has what you need for a life of grace and joy.
2. The Younger Son - selfish, entitled, free, impulsive, and clearly he wants more attention, judgment, or respect than he can give his dad for good.
3. The Older Son - Works hard but unexcitedly. He tries to get more love through his work, with the expectation of how long it will be compared to what he wishes without a fulfilling quest.

context:

Jesus' audience: To the Pharisees and teachers of the law who were coming to Jesus to test him. They were not looking for grace and joy.	Jesus' message: The Father is always ready to forgive and celebrate when we return home.	Jesus' challenge: Do not let your work be your only way to feel loved and accepted.

God's love and forgiveness are unconditional. He desires for you to change your life, but he will always be back with open arms when you return to him.	Be thankful for anything you're trying to do. Don't think you're better than your dad. He's always there, and he's always ready to forgive and celebrate when you return to him.	Key lesson: When does the parable speak to you about grace, love, forgiveness, or unconditional love?

parable study: forgiveness

Understand the story of the prodigal son. The father's love is unconditional. He always has what you need for a life of grace and joy. The younger son is selfish and entitled. He wants more attention, judgment, or respect than he can give his dad for good. The older son works hard but unexcitedly. He tries to get more love through his work, with the expectation of how long it will be compared to what he wishes without a fulfilling quest.

I was in this story:
I was the younger son who demanded my share of my father's wealth and squandered it all during my 40 years of reckless living. I was the older son who worked hard but unexcitedly. I was the father who always had what you need for a life of grace and joy.

4 deeper meanings:
1. The Father's love is unconditional. He always has what you need for a life of grace and joy.
2. The younger son is selfish and entitled. He wants more attention, judgment, or respect than he can give his dad for good.
3. The older son works hard but unexcitedly. He tries to get more love through his work, with the expectation of how long it will be compared to what he wishes without a fulfilling quest.
4. The Father always has what you need for a life of grace and joy.

does this apply to my life?

1. When I was the younger son:
I was selfish and entitled. I wanted more attention, judgment, or respect than I could give my dad for good. I was reckless and I squandered my inheritance. I was always looking for more love and attention from my dad, but I never gave him what he needed. I was always looking for more love and attention from my dad, but I never gave him what he needed.

2. When I was the older son:
I was hardworking and unexcited. I was always looking for more love and attention from my dad, but I never gave him what he needed. I was always looking for more love and attention from my dad, but I never gave him what he needed.

favorite verse from the parable

And he said to him, 'You are always with me, and you have never disobeyed my command, yet I never see you here with me and my servants eating and drinking. I must go and eat and drink with my brothers and sisters. It is necessary for me to go. I will go now, and you will have to come with me.'

my prayer for today

God, I pray for the younger son who is always looking for more love and attention from my dad, but I never give him what he needs. I pray for the older son who is always looking for more love and attention from my dad, but I never give him what he needs. I pray for the father who always has what you need for a life of grace and joy.
