Vita Nova Louise Gluck, 2022-01-04 Winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature In Vita Nova Pulitzer Prize winning poet Louise Gluck manages the apparently impossible a terrifying act of perspective that brings into resolution the smallest human hope and the vast forces that shape and thwart it Since Ararat in 1990 Louise Gluck has been exploring a form that is according to the poet Robert Hass her invention Vita Nova like its immediate predecessors a booklength sequence combines the ecstatic utterance of The Wild Iris with the worldly dramas elaborated in Meadowlands Vita Nova is a book that exists in the long moment of spring a book of deaths and beginnings resignation and hope brutal luminous and far seeing Like late Yeats Vita Nova dares large statement By turns stern interlocutor and ardent novice Gluck compasses the essential human paradox In Vita Nova Louise Gluck manages the apparently impossible a terrifying act of perspective that brings into resolution the smallest human hope and the vast forces that thwart and shape it On Amistà Elizabeth

Coggeshall, 2023-02-27 Although we often think of friendship today as an indisputable value of human social life for thinkers and writers across late medieval Christian society friendship raised a number of social and ethical dilemmas that needed to be carefully negotiated On Amistà analyses these dilemmas and looks at how Dante's strategic articulations of friendship evolved across the phases of his literary career as he manoeuvred between different social groups and settings Elizabeth Coggeshall reveals that friendship was not an unequivocal moral good for the writers of late medieval Italy Instead it was an ambiguous term to be deployed strategically describing a wide range of social relationships such as allies collaborators servants patrons rivals and enemies Drawing on the use of the language of friendship in the letters correspondence poems dedications narratives and treatises composed by Dante and his interlocutors Coggeshall examines the way they skillfully negotiated around the dilemmas that friendship raised in the spheres of medieval Italian literary society The book addresses instances of inclusivity and exclusivity collaboration and self interest hierarchy and equality and alterity and identity Employing literary historical and sociological analysis On Amistà presents a genealogy for the innovative and tactical use of the terms of friendship among the works of late medieval Italian authors Dante's Education Filippo

Gianferrari, 2024-06-25 In fourteenth century Italy literacy became accessible to a significantly larger portion of the lay population allegedly between 60 and 80 percent in Florence and provided a crucial means for the vernacularization and secularization of learning and for the democratization of citizenship Dante Alighieri's education and oeuvre sit squarely at the heart of this historical and cultural transition and provide an ideal case study for investigating the impact of Latin education on the consolidation of autonomous vernacular literature in the Middle Ages a fascinating and still largely unexamined phenomenon On the basis of manuscript and archival evidence Gianferrari reconstructs the contents practice and readings of Latin instruction in the urban schools of fourteenth century Florence It also shows Dante's continuous engagement with this culture of teaching in his poetics thus revealing his contribution to the expansion of vernacular literacy and education The book argues that to achieve his unprecedented position of authority as a vernacular intellectual Dante conceived his poetic works as an alternative educational program for laypeople who could read and write in the vernacular but had little or no proficiency in Latin By reconstructing the culture of literacy shared by Dante and his lay readers Dante s Education shifts critical attention from his legacy as Italy s national poet and a great books author in the Western canon to his experience as a marginal intellectual engaged in advancing a marginal culture

Manuscript Poetics Francesco Marco Aresu, 2023-11-15 Manuscript Poetics explores the interrelationship between the material features of textual artifacts and the literary aspects of the medieval Italian texts they preserve This original study is both an investigation into the material foundations of literature and a reflection on notions of textuality writing and media in late medieval and early modern Italy Francesco Marco Aresu examines the book objects of manuscripts and early printed editions asking questions about the material conditions of production circulation and reception of literary works He invites scholars to reconcile reading with seeing and with touching and to challenge contemporary presumptions about technological neutrality and the modes of interfacing and reading Manuscript Poetics investigates the correspondences between textuality and materiality content and medium and visual verbal messages and their physical support through readings of Dante Alighieri s Vita nova Giovanni Boccaccio s Teseida and Francesco Petrarca s canzoniere Rerum vulgarium fragmenta Aresu shows that Dante Boccaccio and Petrarca evaluated and deployed the tools of scribal culture to shape signal or layer meanings beyond those they conveyed in their written texts Medieval texts Aresu argues are uniquely positioned to provide this perspective and they are foundational to the theoretical understanding of new forms and materials in our media saturated contemporary world

Discourses of Mourning in Dante, Petrarch, and Proust Jennifer Rushworth, 2016-11-17 This book brings together in a novel and exciting combination three authors who have written movingly about mourning two medieval Italian poets Dante Alighieri and Francesco Petrarca and one early twentieth century French novelist Marcel Proust Each of these authors through their respective narratives of bereavement grapples with the challenge of how to write adequately about the deeply personal and painful experience of grief In Jennifer Rushworth s analysis discourses of mourning emerge as caught between the twin conflicting demands of a comforting readable shared generality and a silent solitary respect for the uniqueness of any and every experience of loss Rushworth explores a variety of major questions in the book including what type of language is appropriate to mourning What effect does mourning have on language Why and how has the Orpheus myth been so influential on discourses of mourning across different time periods and languages Might the form of mourning described in a text and the form of closure achieved by that same text be mutually formative and sustaining In this way discussion of the literary representation of mourning extends to embrace topics such as the medieval sin of acedia the proper name memory literary epiphanies the image of the book and the concept of writing as promise In addition to the three primary authors Rushworth draws extensively on the writings of Sigmund Freud Julia Kristeva Jacques Derrida and Roland Barthes These rich and diverse psychoanalytical and French theoretical traditions provide terminological nuance and frameworks for comparison particularly in relation to the complex term melancholia MLN. ,1914 MLN pioneered the introduction of contemporary continental criticism into American scholarship Critical studies in the modern languages Italian Hispanic German French and recent work in comparative literature are the basis for articles and notes in MLN Four single language issues and one comparative literature issue are published each year Classed List Princeton University. Aspects of the Performative in Medieval Culture Manuele Gragnolati,Almut Suerbaum,2010-04-29 The volume assesses performative structures within a variety of medieval forms of textuality from vernacular literature to records of parliamentary proceedings from prayer books to musical composition Three issues are central to the volume the role of ritual speech acts the way in which authorship can be seen as created within medieval texts rather than as a given category finally phenomena of voice created and situated between citation and repetition especially in forms which appropriate and transform literary tradition The volume encompasses articles by historians and musicologists as well as literary scholars It spans European literature from the West French German Italian to the East Church Slavonic vernacular and Latin it contrasts modes of liturgical meditation in the Western and Eastern Church with secular plays and songs and it brings together studies on the character of voice in major medieval authors such as Dante with examples of Dante reception in the early twentieth century Catalogue of the Dante Collection Presented by Willard Fiske Cornell University.
