Poetry Conscious Pamela Storch, 2025-03-31 Welcome to my newest book My book of poems the third The stillness surely deepens Do the oceans need a word There are no words for ocean waves Or waters blue and clear For waves do form and just as fast They swiftly disappear With waterfalls magnificent And rainbows on the sea The fjords in Norway are surreal They re in book number three The shoreline s song is golden Yet the river s dam shall break And when in England have some tea But grammar s a mistake For is it now the car park Or the parking lot oh my The grammar surely changes Based on country that you fly And flowers surely blossom As do inner children too The zebra s stripes were taken The hotel was quite P U Beyond the pond and lily pads Oasis in the trees The butterfly is surely now As light as summer s breeze This poetry is conscious Meditations from the shore For when you truly are awake The end is nevermore Left Margins Karen Fitts, Alan W. France, 1995-01-01 This book examines the cultural politics of knowledge in composition classrooms and presents classroom strategies that develop students awareness of their own ideological subjectivities The Oneness of the Eastern Heart and the Western Mind Sri Chinmoy, 2014-03-22 This historic collection of all of Sri Chinmoy s university lectures in eBook form has been released to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Sri Chinmoy's arrival in the West on 13 April 1964. Sri Chinmoy's very first university lecture was given at the University of the West Indies in Kingston, Jamaica, on 10 January 1968. It was entitled "Spirituality: What It Is and What It Is Not." This inaugurated a whole era of talks which saw Sri Chinmoy travelling ceaselessly across the length and breadth of America and around the world to address the youth of each country. He would spend countless hours travelling by car or train to reach far-flung universities, sometimes visiting two or even three in the course of a single day. After many of these sublimely inspiring discourses, he would answer questions from the audience or spend time instructing sincere seekers in the age-old practices of concentration, meditation, and contemplation. By the mid-seventies, Sri Chinmoy had spoken volumes and he began to include longer and longer periods of silent meditation in his lectures. Then, in 1984, in a significant departure from the spoken word, he introduced the theme of Peace Concerts. At these concerts, Sri Chinmoy would play his own soulful and devotional compositions on a variety of instruments of both Eastern and Western origin, meditating between each instrument and sometimes giving aphorisms on peace and related themes. In 2003, yet another form of Sri Chinmoy's self-offering unfolded when he travelled to a number of universities to honour distinguished professors for their significant contributions to the betterment of humanity by physically lifting them overhead. This remarkable endeavour was part of his "Lifting Up the World With a Oneness Heart" award programme. Thus, through words, silence, music, and a combination of physical and spiritual upliftment, Sri Chinmoy has shared his profound spiritual message with the aspiring Truth-seekers and God-lovers of the university world for four decades. Sri Chinmoy's words are mantras for the modern age, reverberating in our hearts with their timeless and truly life-transforming wisdom. In his exquisite prose, which is suffused with the very breath and cadence of poetry, Sri Chinmoy has revealed all the many stages of the seeker's journey towards the Golden Shores of the ever-transcending Beyond. For generations to come, these three volumes will awaken the inner mounting cry of seekers everywhere to achieve the highest Goal of Yoga: union with God in this life.

Cyclopedia of Painters and Paintings John Denison Champlin, Charles Callahan Perkins, 1913 The Perennial Quest for a Psychology with a Soul Joseph Vrinte, 2002-01-01. The subject matter of this book is so vast that it would be presumptuous to attempt to deal with comprehensively and it would be preposterous to pretend to a final solution to a set of ideas as comprehensive as these worldviews. The author is aware that the contents of this comparative study may appear offensive to the followers of Sri Aurobindo. He tries to stimulate a fruitful dialogue and evaluates this dialogue in a sympathetic manner when he refers to the intentions of both thinkers. The Cosmopolitan, 1898 The Hive Will Levington Comfort, 1918 The Evangelical Episcopalian, 1910 Pictorial Review, 1921.
