Terrorist Chic Michael Selzer, 1979      Symbolism in Terrorism Jonathan Matusitz, 2014-09-16 The symbolic value of targets is what differentiates terrorism from other forms of extreme violence Terrorism is designed to inflict deep psychological wounds on an enemy rather than demolish its material ability to fight The September 11 2001 attacks for example demonstrated the power of symbolism The World Trade Center was targeted by Al Qaeda because the Twin Towers epitomized Western civilization U S imperialism financial success modernity and freedom The symbolic character of terrorism is the focus of this textbook A comprehensive analysis it incorporates descriptions definitions case studies and theories Each chapter focuses on a specific dimension of symbolism in terrorism and explains the contexts and processes that involve the main actors as well as the symbolism of both the purposes and targets of terrorism Also discussed are new religious movements which represent another important aspect of terrorism such as Aum Shinrikyo the Japanese cult that used sarin gas in the Tokyo subway in 1995 Over forty areas of symbolism are covered throughout the chapters including physical and non physical symbolism linguistic symbolism the social construction of reality rituals myths performative violence iconoclasm brand management logos semiotics new media and the global village This allows for an in depth examination of many issues such as anti globalization honor killing religious terrorism suicide terrorism martyrdom weapons female terrorism public communication visual motifs and cyberspace Main concepts are clearly defined and followed by theory illustrated by international case studies Chapter summaries key points review questions research and practice suggestions are recurring components as well This groundbreaking text encompasses all major aspects of symbolism in terrorism and will be an essential resource for anyone studying terrorism      Cinematic Terror Tony Shaw, 2014-11-20 Cinematic Terror takes a uniquely long view of filmmakers depiction of terrorism examining how cinema has been a site of intense conflict between paramilitaries state authorities and censors for well over a century In the process it takes us on a journey from the first Age of Terror that helped trigger World War One to the Global War on Terror that divides countries and families today Tony Shaw looks beyond Hollywood to pinpoint important trends in the ways that film industries across Europe North and South America Asia Africa and the Middle East have defined terrorism down the decades Drawing on a vast array of studio archives government documentation personal interviews and box office records Shaw examines the mechanics of cinematic terrorism and challenges assumptions about the links between political violence and propaganda
