Wanted in Texas Sandy Appleyard,2023-04-24 Two people bad at relationships Two criminals at large As authorities vie for peace two hearts struggle to unite It seems like it will take a miracle and then one happens My brother Will as much as I love him he s a thorn in my side I feel like I m spending more time visiting him at the jail house than I am at my own house He s becoming more cocky unappreciative and then he grows a pair and becomes downright sneaky right under my nose But the man behind the counter at the courthouse is no fool I soon find out that he s also Kate s brother Clay and if I thought my brother Will s life was a mess Clay is no match Until I learn something about him that I didn t think any other man could teach me And then there s no turning back There s something about this jailbird that rubs me the wrong way He s got his sister wrapped around his scrawny little finger and it irks me to no end Denice is not to be played with and she s got nerves of steel I only wish I did too Making matters worse I find out that my estranged sister Kayla is coming home and I m suddenly cloaked with the burden of watching her It s tough when adults behave worse than children and it seems like Denice and I have common ground on that front But no matter what they do nothing can prepare me for the stunt that Will pulls next and for what Denice tells me moments before that am I ready to fight this time or will I run away faster than Will
