The Patchwork Girl of Oz (Classic Reprint) Lyman Frank Baum, 2018-01-20 Excerpt from The Patchwork Girl of Oz Now it wasn't likely that Dorothy would be looking for wireless messages or would heed the call but one thing the Historian was sure of and that was that the powerful Sorceress Glinda would know what he was doing and that he desired to communicate with Dorothy For Glinda has a big book in which is recorded every event that takes place anywhere in the world just the moment that it happens and so of course the book would tell her about the wireless message And that was the way Dorothy heard that the Historian wanted to speak with her and there was a Shaggy Man in the Land of Oz who knew how to telegraph a wireless reply The result was that the Historian begged so hard to be told the latest news of Oz so that he could write it down for the children to read that Dorothy asked permission of Ozma and Ozma graciously consented That is why after two long years of waiting another Oz story is now presented to the children of America This would not have been possible had not some clever man invented the wireless and an equally clever child suggested the idea of reaching the mysterious Land of Oz by its means About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
