Titos Whore:

With Stalin against Tito Ivo Banac, 2018-10-18 In 1948 in a series of moves that culminated in the famous Cominform Resolution Stalin struck at the Communist Party in Yugoslavia provoking the first split in the Communist state system With this long awaited book Ivo Banac becomes the first scholar to assess the domestic consequences of Yugoslavia's expulsion from the Cominform and his findings will radically revise some of our most basic assumptions about Tito's revolution Banac's subject is the nature and fate of those elements in the Yugoslav Communist party who were said to have sided with Moscow against their own country's leadership He demonstrates that the so called Cominformists represented as much as twenty percent of the party membership and had widely divergent aims He then reconstructs the history of the labyrinthine factional struggles that preceded and accompanied the 1948 split and shows that as always the national question played the dominant role in Yugoslav politics After identifying the members of the opposition and mapping its course Banac recounts the harsh repression of the movement He provides massive documentation of startling irony the conflict with Stalin played the same part in the shaping of Yugoslavia's political system as the collectivization and purges of the 1930s did in the history of Soviet communism

The Intercourse of Troubled Thoughts Joseph Emeka Anunbor, 2010-08-13 This book is a direct offspring of the schism in the Worldwide Anglican Communion concerning its traditional and future identity which came apart in 2003 over the election of V Gene Robinson a practicing gay priest as the Bishop of New Hampshire United States When 62 out of 107 leaders of the Episcopal Church US Anglicans confirmed his ordination at its triennial conference later that year the ice that held God's frozen people together for so long began to thaw For the 38 provinces of World Anglicanism it's been a sloppy and loud reversal of communion since its February 10-15 1997 Second Anglican Encounter in the South at Kuala Lumpur Malaysia The prophetic theme of that meeting The Place of Scripture in the Life and Mission of the Church in the 21st Century has been challenged by theologically enlightened American British and Canadian Councils Revisionist ministers

Who Influenced Whom? Dale C. Tatum,2002-10-22 Urging the rejection of the realist paradigm of international relations that rested upon assumptions of balance of power concepts the author examines eight case studies from the Cold War as a move towards setting international relations concepts with more utility in influencing other countries Superpower relations with Syria Turkey Ethiopia and Guinea are explored in terms of strategic relationship concepts Taiwan and Cuba were chosen as cases in which superpowers established a relationship to a small country in order to protect it from an ideological rival Finally the cases of Yugoslavia and Uganda were selected as being examples where a superpower established a relationship with a country in order to gain at the expense of the other superpower Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
